Russia's Proposal To Finland Seen As Military Move

Sense of Urgency In Approach Arouses Interest of Observers

LONDON, Feb. 27 (Reuters).—London observers today regarded the sense of urgency seen in the Russian Government's reported request to Finland for the conclusion of a mutual military assistance pact as more consistent with the strict timetable of a military plan than with a diplomatic approach for a peaceful alliance

According to an Associated Press report from Helsinki, Prime Minister Stalin has informed Finland she should sign a pact with Russia similar to those linking the Soviet Union and its other neighbors

Finland traditionally is considered by Russia as a vital defensive bastion or if not controlled by Russia as a dangerous springboard for attack against the Soviet Union.

Russia's reported request was not unexpected by diplomatic observers here. Official denials in Helsinki of earlier reports that there had been preliminary approaches for a treaty never removed the impression that the strong Finnish mission to Moscow last November was the forerunner of an agreement on the pattern of those concluded by Russia with her other western neighbors.

The arrival in Helsinki last month of Lieut.-Gen. G. M. Savonenkov, the new Russian ambassador to Finland, was widely interpreted inside and outside Finland as the beginning of a new phase in post-war Russo-Finnish relations. The appointment of a Russian military attache to Finland for the first time since the war was seen as confirmation of Soviet interest in the evolution of Finland's armed forces and defences.

Finland, of all countries inside the direct Soviet sphere of influence, is generally regarded as the one which has hitherto received the most liberal treatment by Moscow in the respect of her institutions and sovereignty.

It has been argued by political commentators that this measure of Russian tolerance could be partly explained by Russian anxiety not to alarm or antagonize other Scandinavian countries during a period when Moscow is trying to prevent the Scandinavian powers singly or collectively throwing in their lot with the western powers.

Labor Lobby Threatened At Meeting

Another labor lobby to Victoria was hinted last night by two leaders of the British Columbia Federation of Labor (C.C.L.), who said they did not believe the Government has any intention of implementing legislative changes asked by a C.C.L. delegation yesterday.

Harvey Murphy, acting federation president, and Harold Pritchett, executive secretary, part of a 12-man delegation, which presented the federation's brief on labor laws to the Cabinet, told a meeting in the Canadian Legion Britannia Branch Hall that further action will be taken if the representation meets with no success

"We must have what is in the brief or else we will converge on Victoria again," said Mr. Pritchett, who is district president of the International Woodworkers of America. "We'll move the whole province of British Columbia to Victoria and if that doesn't work we have the picket lines and ballot box."

Speaking on labor objections to the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, he claimed that "employers do not have any qualms about breaking the law if it means more profits."

He said the Provincial Cabinet works on the principle "to them that have, more shall be given, from them that have not, more shall be taken," referring to increases in transit fares and gasoline "imposed" on the public.

Policy Makers Facing Important Decisions

OTTAWA, Feb 27 (CP).—Canada's foreign policy makers are likely to make some important decisions within the next week on lines to be followed on Korea, Palestine and Czecho-Slovakia.

L. B. Pearson, under-secretary of state for external affairs, is returning tonight to Ottawa from the United Nations in New York to confer with his colleagues.

The Korean question boils down to whether or not Canada will withdraw from the 11-member commission sent out to the Far East to facilitate Korean independence. Russia has boycotted the commission from the start.

The United States has proposed in the U.N. "Little Assembly" that the commission go ahead and hold elections in Korea, despite lack of any co-operation from the Russians, who occupy the northern half of the country.

Canada, along with Australia, opposed this policy.

On Palestine, the U.S. proposal that the Big Five member of the Security Council decide if the situation in the Holy Land constitutes a threat to the peace, and if so what to do about it, poses a whole series of problems for the Foreign Affairs experts here

If the Big Five conclude it is such a threat and decides that action should be taken, then the question of a U.N. military force immediately arises

This could involve Canada as a leading middle power.

The political upheaval in Czecho-Slovakia, which saw the Czech Communists seize power, is being carefully considered here now, External Affairs Minister St. Laurent told the House of Commons

Mr. Pearson will take part in these deliberations and a statement is likely to be made early in the week.

Sees No Hope Of Repayment

OTTAWA, Feb. 27 (CP).—Agriculture Minister Gardiner said tonight in the Commons that a "very considerable" portion of the loans which Canada has extended to war-devastated countries "is never going to be paid back."

Discussing Government legislation to amend the Canadian Wheat Board Act, he said the greater part of the wheat being exported from Canada is going to countries which can not pay for it and noted that the wheat is being paid for out of money loaned by the Government of Canada

"Everybody in this House," he added, "knows that a considerable part is never going to be paid back"

"That is news," interjected E. D. Fulton (P.C., Kamloops)

"There is no news about it; everybody knows it," returned Mr. Gardiner.

Mr. Gardiner said that to the extent to which this money is not paid back, insofar as it relates to wheat, the money paid to western farmers is a charge on all the people of Canada."

Fire Does Heavy Damage in Furniture Factory

—Colonist Photos

FIRE which broke out at 7.30 p.m. in Philbrook Butler Co. Ltd., 2020 Douglas Street, last night did considerable damage before the fire department brought it under control in an hour. The fire started in the basement woodwork shop, burned through the floor and to the roof. The original alarm sent a truck to 202 Douglas, and the truck then raced through the downtown area to the northern part of the street. Billowing smoke is shown at top when firemen forced an entrance for the hose at a side door. The lower picture was taken when the blaze was under control but with heavy smoke still pouring out.

Two Editors Summoned As Witnesses

TORONTO, Feb 27 (CP).—An R.C.M.P. constable served two summonses today at the office of New Liberty magazine in connection with the trial of three Ontario residents on charges of conspiracy to publish libel to be heard at Edmonton, April 5

Wallace Reyburn, editor of New Liberty, said he and Keith Knowlton of Toronto, an assistant editor, were served with summonses to appear at Edmonton as witnesses in the trial.

Jack Kent Cooke of Toronto, publisher of the magazine, Harold Dingman, its Ottawa correspondent, and Dr Charlotte Whitton of Ottawa, welfare worker, are the three charged by the Alberta Attorney-General

The charges of conspiring to publish a defamatory libel arose after an article entitled "Babies for Export" appeared in New Liberty last December 27 In preliminary hearings at Edmonton, defence counsel said the article was based on a report of Alberta welfare conditions prepared by Dr. Whitton

Dr. Whitton prepared her report for the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire.

At Edmonton yesterday, R.C.M.P. officers searched the home of Mrs E. P. Griffith, secretary of the I.O.D.E., and the organization's central office.

Ottawa Raises Salary Scales

OTTAWA, Feb 27 (CP).—Finance Minister Abbott announced today that the salary scales of about 5,175 employees of the Federal Government ranging from grain samplers to lighthouse keepers, are being increased Total cost to the Civil Service will be about $1,080,000 a year

Little Improvement In Available Jobs

VICTORIA'S employment slump remained virtually unchanged last week, although there was a "slight improvement" in number of jobs available, C. A. Mudge, manager of the National Employment Service office here, reported yesterday.

Mr. Mudge said there was a fair demand for skilled male workers and that there were more jobs available for women, in comparison with the number of job seekers, than men.

Dictation of Prices To Bakeries Denied

OTTAWA, Feb. 26 (CP).—Bakeries controlled by four-milling companies do not "dictate" bread prices charged by other bakeries, the Commons Price Committee was told today.

Charles Ruttan of Toronto, former Prices Board bakery administrator and now secretary of the Ontario Bakers' Association, denied suggestions that such bakeries determine the general price of bread, though he cited one instance where they had influenced it.

That occasion was the setting of a 15-cents-a-loaf price in Toronto last September to replace the 10-cent ceiling price after bread decontrol. Mr Ruttan said Lake of the Woods Milling Company had decided on a 13-cent price for its Toronto bakery—Brown's Bread—and this had had a considerable bearing in keeping some bakers from going to 14 cents

Other evidence by Mr. Ruttan.

1. The present 14-cent standard price of bread in Ontario and Quebec is "reasonable."

2. He knew of no occasions when bakers conspired to fix prices, or even discussed the establishment of prices.

3. He had no knowledge of any "discrimination" by bakers against retailers who refused to follow their "suggested" retail prices.

Completing a week devoted exclusively to ferreting out causes of recent bread-price rises, the committee turned its attention to rentals briefly today, and Health Minister Paul Martin, chairman, announced its steering committee was to make a study of the possible effects of next month's removal of commercial rent controls on the cost of living.

Two C.C.F. members—William Irvine (Cariboo) and Angus MacInnis (Vancouver East)—asked the committee to give an order to this effect to the steering body, but Chairman Martin said the smaller group had the matter under consideration anyway He promised it would report on Monday.

Marshall Plan Socialist Topic

LONDON, Feb. 27 (AP).—Britain's Labor Party tonight called a conference of European Socialists to discuss the Marshall Plan The talks will be held March 21 and 22.

School Costs Turned Down

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., Feb 27 (CP).—New Westminster School Board's extraordinary estimates of $35,000 were rejected by City Council today. Ordinary estimates of $617,358 were left over until Monday night.

"A point has now been reached when all cities and municipalities must call a halt to continually mounting education costs," declared Alderman J. A. Courtney.

'Salty' Season Arranged For Canadian Warships

Twelve Canadian warships, including nine intended primarily for training purposes will be in action this Spring and Summer in what the Navy says will be the "saltiest season the peacetime R.C.N. has ever put in".

The fleet will be composed of an aircraft carrier, a cruiser, five destroyers three frigates and two Algerine escort vessels The frigate St. Stephen will continue her duties as a North Atlantic weather ship.

Heading the nine vessels whose chief duty is training will be the big cruiser Ontario, now in the Pacific with the destroyer Crescent and the frigate Antigonish Ontario and Crescent will rendezvous in the Caribbean next month with other Canadian and British ships and will return to Esquimalt early in May to start training duties.

Antigonish is due at Esquimalt Wednesday with a class of R.C.N. cadets being trained with the Pacific squadron

Cayuga, the Navy's brand-new destroyer, sailed from Halifax February 4 and will reach Esquimalt in mid-March, when she will "shake down" in preparation for training duties starting in April.

The carrier Magnificent will be commissioned in April in Belfast, reach Halifax near the end of May and put to sea again in July for deck-landing training of the two squadrons of the 19th Carrier Air Group.

Athabaskan, another destroyer, will follow Cayuga to Esquimalt for regular reserve training cruises in the Pacific. Nootka and Haida will be used for training purposes on the East Coast.

U.B.C.M. Asks Council Not Accept Estimates School Boards Present

Refusal Advised Until Government Commits Self to Aid in Finances

Member councils of Union of British Columbia Municipalities yesterday were advised by the executive by wire to refuse to accept school board estimates for 1948 until the Provincial Government gives a definite answer as to what it intends to do to assist municipalities out of their financial straits.

This action followed a two-hour meeting with Cabinet, at which the executive tried in vain to get the Government to indicate what additional relief, if any it proposes to grant this year

The telegram said.

". . . The executive asked for a definite statement, but were unable to obtain same

"(It is) suggested that in all cases where in the opinion of the council the estimates for school purposes have increased to too great an extent, the estimates of the trustees be refused until some definite word is received from the Provincial Government."

During yesterday's meeting with the Executive Council, which is also Council of Public Instruction the union executive, headed by Mayor W. H. Mott of New Westminster and Mayor Percy E. George, of Victoria, presented tabulations showing this year's education cost increases sought in school boards' estimates.

It called on the Government for an answer to the proposal it made months ago that responsibility for school financing should be taken over entirely by the Province, and that it should meet the cost by imposing an education levy in the form of a sales tax on everything but essential foods.

Details of the union's submissions are on Page 8.

Drifts Plug Highways In Alberta

CALGARY Feb 27 (CP).—As residents of Southern Alberta were still digging themselves out tonight after the worst blizzard of the Winter, more snow and wind brought threats of new blizzards for the week-end

Already most roads and some main highways in the south of the province were plugged by drifts—some as deep as ten feet. On the Canadian Pacific Railway's main-line, 70 miles southeast of here the first section of Trans-Continental Train No. 3 was stalled for almost 14 hours by drifts in a cut-bank area before it was freed tonight by snow ploughs The train consisted of only mail and express cars. Day coaches and sleepers on the train's second section and following trains were held up at Bassano.

Telephone communications south and east of Calgary were cut off as lines went down before the blizzard, telephone maintenance crews worked steadily throughout the day to repair the damage and by 8 p.m. had cleared one line to Winnipeg, one to Lethbridge and one to Helena, Montana. Direct lines to Medicine Hat and Regina were still down but these points were being reached via Lethbridge and Kindersley, Sask.

Traffic to Toronto and other Eastern centres was being handled over the patched Winnipeg line

Hundreds were stranded away from home by the blocked roads.

Mayor Submits New Plans For Hospitals

Proposals for a new basis of provincial-municipal aid to hospitals was presented to Cabinet yesterday by Mayor Percy E. George of Victoria, during discussion between Government and Union of British Columbia Municipalities of financial problems facing local councils.

Mayor George suggested that if the Province would agree to double its per diem assistance to hospitals, Victoria city would be ready to match it.

That would raise the share of each authority to $1.40 a day, in place of the present 70 cents

Cabinet was reminded that last year Victoria had paid out $125,000 equivalent to roughly three and one-half times the statutory 70 cents per diem grant.

This, the mayor said, was done by the city because it was not prepared to see the hospital "left out in the cold," though other municipalities had not seen fit to grant similar emergency aid

He maintained that if the rate now paid by the Province were doubled, it would spread part of the burden over unorganized areas.

Hearing on Milk Prices Opens in City March 8

Victoria hearings of primary producers' and distributors' applications for milk price increases will open on March 8 at 10 a.m., Ernest C. Carr, chairman of the one-man Provincial Milk Board, announced yesterday

They will relate to prices in the three controlled areas on Vancouver Island: Victoria, Duncan and Nanaimo.

More than a month ago the board recommended an increase of two cents a quart in the consumer price of all grades, with most of the increase to go to producers.

The Government refused to act, however, ordering that opportunity be given to the public to be heard here and in Vancouver before consideration is given to proposed changes in current prices.

Since then there has been a move by some retail stores to get a one-cent boost in the spread they are now allowed.

At Victoria hearings, to be held in Knights of Pythias Hall, the board will hear representations from organizations or individuals. It has requested those intending to present briefs to file copies with the board's office, 404 West Hastings Street, Vancouver, not later than March 5.

Pearkes Asks Explanation Of Dismissals

OTTAWA, Feb 27 (CP).—Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C. (P.C., Nanaimo), asked in the Commons today if veterans were being released as temporary letter-carriers in Victoria because they had failed to pass a civil service examination He asked the Government to waive the necessity of passing examinations for veterans with 12 months' satisfactory service.

Postmaster-General Bertrand answered that if a veteran failed an examination he was kept on for some time and given another chance to pass. If he failed twice he had to be replaced.

Banks Hold $1,500,000 Forgotten by Canadians

OTTAWA, Feb. 27 (CP).—A cool $1,500,000—not in one big beautiful pile, mind you, but in the fact-packed ledgers of banks from coast to coast—is just sitting there waiting for people to come along and claim it.

Canada's banks told today the same old wonderful-but-almost-unbelievable story of unclaimed balances, dividends, certified cheques, drafts and bills of exchange

Tabled in the Commons were the annual, straightforward reports of 12 Canadian banks conforming routinely to the requirements of Subsections 1-4 of Section 117 of the Bank Act.

They said that supposedly prospering persons have apparently forgotten the tidy sum of $1,431,477.20.

The unclaimed sums range from 17 cents to $34,822.13. The address of the woman in whose name the greatest amount is listed is "unknown." Many of the thousands of dormant amounts run into four figures, but by far the greater majority are the savings of little people—$18.27 and $30.08 and $21.94

Predicts Jump In Living Cost

OTTAWA, Feb. 27 (CP).—A new jump in the cost of living can be expected as a result of recent boost in the prices of meat, fuel oil and gasoline, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics said today.

"These recent advances can be expected to cause some further rise in the cost-of-living index which, by January 1, 1948, had already reached 148.3, about 17 per cent higher than its level a year earlier," the bureau said.

He stopped and got out to find the cougar stretched on road. It was seven feet long. Passenger in car at time was Mrs. G. I. Young. Cougar was blamed for losses of livestock on island estimated at more than £1,000.

Transfer of British Railways In Argentina Official March 1

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 27 (AP)—Every train in Argentina will stop at 6.55 p.m. March 1.

When they start running again five minutes later they will be part of the state railway system. The halt is to remind passengers of the formal transfer of British-owned railroads to the Argentine Government.

It also will mark the end of Britain's largest investment in South America. Financially weakened by two world wars within a generation, Great Britain sold the 12,000 miles of railroads for her 1948 supplies of Argentine meat and corn.

Nearly all the British part of the system is Russian gauge—5 feet 6 inches between the rails. The reason goes back to the Crimean war. Britain built a locomotive which her armies hoped to use on Russian railways. The war ended before the locomotive arrived and it was then sold to a group of Argentinians building the first railroad here. Most of those which followed were built to the same gauge.

Before Peron took office, the Argentinians owned a third of the country's railroads, mostly narrow-gauge lines in sparsely settled areas. Peron bought several thousand miles of French-owned lines. Next week's ceremony will take over more than half the mileage in the country, and by far the most important part.

The British lines were sold to Argentina for £150,000,000 ($600,000,000)—about the market value of their stocks and bonds. The capital of the companies was about £220,000,000 but the shares have not paid dividends for 10 years.

States Plays Lack Contrast

VANCOUVER, Feb. 27 (CP).—Performances of two original one-act plays by Vancouver authors featured the second evening of the British Columbia Regional Drama Festival here tonight.

The plays were "Tender Memory," by Wing Cmdr. W. J. Mooney, R.C.A.F., of the West Vancouver Little Theatre Guild, and "Curtain Call," by Alex Hood of the Community Self-Help Drama Group.

"Fair Rosamund," by Lal Norris, the third play, a classical English drama, was presented by the West Vancouver Guild.

Festival Adjudicator Robert Stuart termed "Tender Memory" as "only an episode," the main action taking place in the Burma theatre of war, not in the leading lady's home.

"Curtain Call," he said, was "slightly archaic, lacking teamwork."

"Fair Rosamund" was on the "dirge side," Stuart contended, with climaxes missed by the main characters.

Mr. Stuart declared all three plays lacked "dramatic contrast."

Agrees to Treat Cancer Victims

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, Feb. 27 (CP) — John Braund, 78-year-old layman who claims to have effected a cure for cancer, today agreed to treat two Vancouver women who arrived earlier this week.

Braund said that Mrs. Ruth McIntyre and Mrs. Annie Northam are suffering from "dangerously-advanced" cancers. The women, who flew across the Pacific this week, met Braund earlier today.

Braund originally had cabled them not to come to Australia after they had requested treatment. His fame rocketted overnight when he made his claim to have found a cure for cancer.

Wallace Claims Czech Crisis Fault of U.S.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 27 (AP)—The Czech crisis is evident that a "get tough" policy only provokes a "get tougher" policy, Henry A. Wallace said here tonight.

He made the statement in a speech prepared for delivery in his campaign as a third party candidate for President.

"Every act under the Truman doctrine is clearly labelled—'anti-Russian,'" he said. "The men in Moscow would, from their viewpoint, be utter morons if they failed to respond with acts of pro-Russian consolidation.

"The Czecho-Slovakia story will repeat itself so long as our gun and dollar policies in Greece, in China and elsewhere on Russia's doorstep are continued . . ."

To Give Decision On Ferry Service

OLYMPIA, Feb. 27 (AP)—The fate of 100,000 Puget Sound ferry users will be known tomorrow.

Superior Judge John M. Wilson will give a decision on the State's request for an injunction to prevent the Puget Sound Navigation Company from suspending service at midnight Sunday.

The company contends it cannot operate at rates authorized by the State Department of Transportation. A temporary increase 30 per cent above rates charged February 15, 1947, has been ordered cut back to but 10 per cent.

Unnerved Western Europe Asks U.S. Assurances of Security

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27 (AP).—A growing feeling of insecurity among the countries of Western Europe, as a result of the Communists' taking power in Czecho-Slovakia, was reported by administration officials today.

And they said United States policy on European alliances would be reviewed to see what might be done to make Western Europe feel more [illegible]

This was disclosed as Representative Bryan Dorn offered a resolution proposing that the United States form military pacts with "freedom-loving nations"—a step that has been urged by Financier Bernard Baruch and several others.

Dorn told the House of Representatives: "I'm getting tired of 'national defence.' I think we should have some 'national offence.'"

Diplomatic authorities here said the Czech crisis has given new importance to the security question in the Anglo-French-American talks now under way in London on the economic and political future of Western Germany.

American officials said Western Europe's concern naturally was based on uncertainty over what Soviet-directed Communists might do next. Most authoritative estimates here are:

1. In Eastern Europe, the next Soviet move to consolidate power will be in Finland which, like Czecho-Slovakia, has enjoyed a considerable degree of independence and freedom from Communist pressure since the end of the war.

2. In Western Europe, it is expected that the Russians soon will throw their Communist machines in motion in France, Italy or both together to create chaos and embarrass, if not overthrow, the present governments. They tried this last December.

Jury Returns Open Verdict On Slaying

NORTH VANCOUVER, Feb. 27 (CP).—A coroner's inquest jury, which returned an open verdict in the shotgun slaying of Bernard H. Smith, today ignored a suggestion from Coroner Harold Dyer.

He told the jury: "There was no sign of struggle, and such a weapon as you have heard described can obviously be fired by only one man. It would be ridiculous to suggest in your verdict that death was caused by person or persons unknown."

The jury, however, returned a verdict saying Smith came to his death from "a gunshot wound inflicted by a person other than himself."

William Piercy, charged with the slaying, attended the inquest, but did not testify. He will appear in city police court March 4 for preliminary hearing.

A witness at the inquest said Piercy suffered from a "persecution complex" and had been worried over the dismissal of a daughter from school.

Call 32 Witnesses In Robbery Hearing

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27 (CP)—Witnesses streamed to the stand in a steady flow today at the preliminary hearing of Michael Stefanick and Alex Poroznuk, charged in the $208,000 robbery of a downtown bank last October, and now have identified more than $66,000 worth of stolen bonds in the two days of the hearing.

Thirty-two witnesses have been heard since the hearing opened yesterday and Crown Prosecutor O. M. M. Kay said approximately 60 more Crown witnesses would be called. Approximately half the loot was recovered by police last December 22 from a cache on the city outskirts.

Strube Retiring From Cartooning

LONDON, Feb. 27 (CP) — Sidney Strube, whose "Little Man" cartoons in London's Daily Express have been a national institution for 36 years, is retiring from the newspaper.

His little man, a moustached runt with a bowler and umbrella, was described by Strube as having "a little bit of everybody" in him. He endured the same difficulties as the average Briton, exchanging a bowler for a steel helmet during the war, and wearing patched clothes as a symbol of postwar austerity.

Strube, who is known to his friends as "George"—a name which he in turn calls everybody, including his wife—is London born.

His little man is expected to appear, although less frequently, as Strube will not entirely give up cartooning in his retirement.

"Operation Towel" Said Successful

SAN MATEO, Calif., Feb. 27 (AP)—A 30-year-old mother said tonight she recently underwent an operation in which doctors removed a hospital towel left inside her in an operation two years ago.

The woman is Mrs. Lillian Arthur. Her husband, Frank, is a painting contractor. The family came to San Mateo County last year from Bremerton, Wash.

At Bremerton, she said, she "suspected that something was wrong and once I jokingly told my Bremerton doctor I thought he had left his hat or scissors inside me." But X-ray examinations, she continued, revealed nothing.

The doctor who removed the towel confirmed the incident, but declined use of his name.

Triple Mishap Damages Truck

As the result of a triple accident on Menzies Street yesterday, a truck driven by Gordon Paulson, 2512 Douglas Street, suffered considerable damage, city police reported.

According to Constables R. Mair and J. Baxter who attended, the accident occurred about 3:10 p.m., when a truck driven south on Menzies by Mr. Paulson was in collision with the rear of a truck driven by Percival Napier, R.R.1, Atkins Road, which in turn was in collision with an auto driven by Arthur Russell, Box 2435, Albert Head.

Bakery Workers Named Defendants

VANCOUVER, Feb. 27 (CP).—Twenty-one members of the Bakery and Confectionery Workers Union (A.F.L.-T.L.C.) today were named defendants in a writ asking $5,000 damages and an injunction to halt alleged illegal picketing.

The writs was filed by counsel for Brown Brothers' Bakery where picketing began February 22. The union claimed eight bakers had been "locked out."

S. G. Brown claimed early in February that he had sold his business to a group of his employees. He said then he could no longer operate in view of union demands.

T.C.A. Faces Damage Suit

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27 (CP).—A statement of claim arising out of the disappearance of a Trans-Canada Air liner near Vancouver last April 28 was filed in Court of King's Bench today on behalf of the widow and two children of one of the aircraft's passengers.

Damages of $45,000 are asked from T.C.A. by Margaret Helen Vance, widow of David Andrew Vance of Winnipeg, a passenger on the ill-fated Lockheed plane which never has been located.

The claim states that by reason of "negligence of the defendant company, its agents, servants or workmen," the plane crashed at or near Vancouver, causing the death of Mr. Vance.

Test Pilot Breaks Own Speed Record

WINCHESTER, Hants, England, Feb. 27 (Reuters).—Test Pilot Mike Lithgow, 27, today established an international air speed record when he flew his bullet-shaped Supermarine "Attacker" aircraft around a 100-kilometre closed circuit in 564.881 miles an hour.

Lithgow, test pilot for Vickers-Armstrong, bettered by more than four miles an hour the record he had set up yesterday when he took [illegible] around the course twice in bumpy weather and poor visibility. His top time yesterday was 560.634 miles an hour.

B.C.'s Labor Act Heartily Condemned By C.C.L. Federation Before Cabinet

Provincial Government was told yesterday that since adoption of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act (Bill 39) last year, labor-management and labor-Government relations have "deteriorated immeasurably."

The statement was made by a 12-man delegation from British Columbia Federation of Labor (C.C.L.), which met Cabinet to present its annual demands for changes in labor legislation.

Claiming to represent 60,000 members of local unions, the federation submitted proposals differing very little from those offered last year, or from those suggested by a Trades and Labor Congress group three days earlier.

It declared that an overwhelming majority of working people condemned several basic sections of the I.C.A. Act.

"It is not a labor bill, it is not a labor code. It's an employers' law to hamstring organized labor and make our existence as trade unions insecure," a spokesman for the group asserted.

Primarily, it called on the Province to use influence on Ottawa authorities towards establishment of a fair national labor code, and in the meantime to amend the I.C.A. Act to remove what were claimed to be injustices to organized labor.

MAKES CHARGES

Charges of prejudice were leveled against Department of Labor officials, particularly in the last year, and the Government was urged to "investigate closely the role of certain officials acting on behalf of the Government who are stirring up jurisdictional strife among the trade unions, between affiliates of our federation and the American Federation of Labor."

The delegation voiced concern, too, over what it describes as "over-all Red-baiting propaganda" throughout the Province, and declared that officers and members of its trade unions were firm believers in democracy.

Principal requests made by the delegation were for 1 A 40-hour work week.

2 Provincial minimum wage of 75 cents an hour, and new overtime rate provisions.

3. Two weeks annual vacation with pay.

4. Outlawing of company unions and employees' organizations, and other labor practices declared unfair.

5. Broader union security and provision for compulsory rather than voluntary check-off of union dues.

6. Deletion of the section providing for lockout and strike penalties.

7. Clearer definition of functions and powers of the Labor Relations Board.

8. Removal of the section requiring Government supervision of strike ballots.

Under the Workmen's Compensation Act, the delegation called for increase in compensation payments to 100 per cent of earnings, with a minimum of $20 a week guaranteed during incapacity, inclusion of other occupational diseases in the schedule; compulsory blanket coverage for all occupations, and increased benefits for dependents, including a minimum allowance of $80 a month to widows.

OTHER REQUESTS

Also requested by the delegation were

1. Old age pensions of $60 a month at age 60, without means test.

2 Immediate implementation of the Provincial Health Insurance Act.

2 Institution of low rental housing projects, with or without Federal assistance.

4 Inclusion of trade union movement studies in school curricula.

5. Inclusion of domestic workers under existing labor legislation.

6 Protests to Ottawa against employer groups being allowed to bring displaced persons into Canada.

7. Removal of racial discrimination in employment.

8. Compulsory automobile insurance.

It expressed "unalterable opposition" to imposition of a Provincial sales tax, called for prices generally to be rolled back to 1946 levels, and urged the Government to take over gasoline production and distribution.

Heading the 12-man delegation were Harvey Murphy, federation's acting president, Alex McKenzie, vice-president; Harold Pritchett, secretary-treasurer, and Pen Baskin, legislation committee chairman.

Brushes, Money Paint Firm Loot

Paint brushes valued at $186 and cash amounting to $124 was stolen from the Canada Paint Co., 651 Cormorant Street, city police reported yesterday.

Police said entry to the building was gained by removing glass from a skylight. The thieves forced doors leading to the office and store of the building, ransacking desk drawers and cabinets.

Detectives John Lund, Angus Munro and Fearon Woodburn are investigating.

Funeral Service on Wednesday For Victoria Brewery Founder

Funeral service will be held at 1.30 p.m. Wednesday from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel for Harry Maynard, prominent Victoria businessman who died yesterday at his home, 864 Esquimalt Road. He would have been 80 this June.

Mr. Maynard formed the Silver Spring Brewery Co. in 1906 and in 1928 merged with several other firms to form Coast Breweries Ltd. He later disposed of his holdings, retained for a time his position as manager of Silver Spring Breweries here, and affiliated with Sick Enterprises.

HARRY MAYNARD

He was well known for work with charities, donating an ambulance and other equipment to the Red Cross during the war. To celebrate his 60th year of residence in Victoria on April 30, 1944, he sent 100,000 cigarettes overseas. Before, he had purchased 650,000 cigarettes for free distribution to prisoners-of-war in Germany and British Columbia troops overseas.

Mr. Maynard, keenly interested in politics, was a life-long Conservative. He followed horse racing and was associated with the sport at Colwood and Willows racing grounds. He owned and had a share in several hotels and at his death owned a half-interest in the Gorge Hotel.

Born in Bude, Cornwall, England, he came to Canada as a young man, working first with the E. & N. Railway and then with Victoria Phoenix Brewery.

Surviving are three sisters in England and a nephew, J. B. Gill, of Victoria. His wife died during the war.

Rev. George Biddle will officiate at the services. Interment will be in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

Found Guilty Of Theft From Garage

Found guilty of stealing $80 from Dickson Bros. garage, 823 Douglas Street at 7 p.m. Wednesday, James Conley was remanded until today for sentence when he declined to acknowledge that he had been previously found guilty of theft in Burnaby.

City Prosecutor Claude L. Harrison asked for an adjournment to obtain proof of conviction.

Lionel Dickson testified he had been near the rear of the garage when he heard the bell of a cash register in the front office. Rushing toward the office, Dickson said, he saw the accused through a glass partition removing money from the cash drawer.

The accused then turned to run out the door but was grabbed and held while police were called, said Mr. Dickson.

G. Lindsay Dickson also described seeing the accused remove money from the cash register and said Conley had tried to stuff money into a corner while grappling with his brother.

Conley said he had been drinking and had gone to the Crystal Garden. Feeling sick, he had gone to the office of the garage to telephone a taxi. He said he had noticed some money on the floor and was picking it up to put it on the counter.

Evidence was also given by Constables Donald Buie and L. Clarke and Detective Norman Bath.

To Face Trial For Entering

Leo Allen was committed for trial by Magistrate Henry C. Hall yesterday on a charge of breaking and entering a house at 1302 Rockland Avenue on the night of February 8. Accused claimed he had not even been close to the house.

Marcel Allen, brother of the accused, said he had left the accused on the Causeway at 8.30 p.m.

Joseph McKenna, defence counsel, contended it was not possible for the accused to have traveled to the Rockland Avenue home by foot and commit the crime at the time stated in the charge.

Municipal Briefs Of the District

Victoria Marine Electrical Co. has asked the City Council to extend the March 8 deadline for tenders for electrical work on the Memorial Arena for two weeks. The company said it could not obtain prices on special equipment from manufacturers within the time set.

The White Cane Club has asked the City Council to provide a guard for obstructions placed on sidewalks, including ladders and scaffolds, and with lights to be placed on them at night.

The city parks department will ask the works department to set aside money for connecting house sewers in the Gonzales Bay area to the city mains. Some of the homes now only use septic tanks, which the parks committee feels are polluting the beaches.

The parks committee has taken no action on a request of nearby residents for removal of brush from the Holland Point area.

Mrs. J. E. Dawson, 41 Cadillac Avenue, has put in a claim to Mayor Percy E. George for injuries allegedly suffered when she fell on the sidewalk in front of the Centennial Church. She claimed the city was negligent in failing to keep the sidewalk safe for pedestrians.

Demands Made For Housing

Citizens' Rehabilitation Council of Greater Victoria will continue trying to persuade Oak Bay and Saanich to permit construction by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation of low-rental houses for veterans, A. Palmer, secretary, said in a letter to the City Council yesterday.

He expressed appreciation of the action of the city in authorizing construction of 100 new houses.

"Veterans in this city in need of housing will appreciate the fact that the City Council is standing by promises to service personnel in the days when promises were easily made," he declared.

At the same time, he admitted the rehabilitation group had had no success in persuading the other municipalities to take similar action.

Both Drivers Receive Fines

Both drivers involved in an automobile collision at Linden Avenue and Oscar Street February 22 were found guilty of dangerous driving by Magistrate Henry C. Hall in city police court yesterday.

Francis Costello and James M. Hall, drivers of the two cars, were each fined $40 and had their licence suspended for one month.

Both drivers said they had been traveling between 25 and 30 miles an hour.

The magistrate held that neither of the accused had kept an adequate lookout.

Both cars were seriously damaged.

Museum Gets Totem Poles

Originally from the Indian village of Comox, formerly a Hudson's Bay Company post, specimens of Sallsham totem poles have been presented to Provincial Museum by Mrs. A. S. Dundas of Courtenay.

Some of the poles are believed to be more than a century old. One, according to legend, is said to represent the figure of Capt. George Vancouver.

Lions Club Member's Face Is Red When His Suggestion Backfires

AT a certain Shelbourne Street school zone, slow signs were apparently unheeded by a number of passing motorists recently.

An official of the Victoria Lions Club, in the interest of safety for school children in the area, brought the matter to the attention of the Saanich Police Department. He suggested that police check the school zone, and catch a few of the offenders.

The police agreed, and within a short time had a constable at the school zone. They did find several drivers guilty of not observing speed limits.

And the first one they nabbed? You guessed it—the club member who originally made the complaint!

New Sports Gala to Replace Lions Club 'Tin Lizzy' Derby

"Tin Lizzy" derbies, an annual event of the Victoria Lions Club for several past years, will be discontinued in favor of an annual outdoor sports gala, it was decided at a meeting of the club yesterday at the Empress Hotel.

J. H. Brown said each derby held so far had resulted in an injury to some spectator, and that returns from the function did not justify necessary arrangements, work and expense.

The outdoor sports meet might be in the form of a water event. It would be held July 1.

Harold Harrison, Victoria Boy Scout with an imperfect eye, will undergo an operation next Friday, reported Club Member David Maharey. The operation, necessary to restore the Scout's proper vision, has been undertaken with club finances.

Special guests at the meeting were C. A. Kelly, principal of Esquimalt High School, and two students, Owen Burton, vice-president of the school's students' council, and Leslie Galloway, treasurer. All three presented brief addresses relative to the school.

The meeting concluded with showing of an interesting film entitled "High-speed Motion Pictures," dealing with features of an industrial camera.

U.B.C.M. Cabinet Hold Long Parley Over Situation on Education Costs

What was described as an impossible situation confronting municipal councils in connection with education costs was discussed for two hours yesterday between Cabinet and the executive of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities.

The executive met the Government mainly to drive home the and to call for an answer to the suggestion it made months ago that the province assume the whole burden and finance it from an education tax in the form of a retail sales tax on everything but essential foods.

"We received no reply to that, and were told the Government could not say when it will be in a position to advise us as to what it has in mind," Mayor Mott told reporters later.

"The only thing we can do now is to turn down the school estimates, and even go to arbitration, if we don't get assistance from the Government."

Mayor Percy George of Victoria, union vice-president, said cost of education was setting the pattern for municipal budgeting, and that councils could not go ahead with their estimates until the matter was settled.

COST PLENTY

He said the $200,000 increase in Greater Victoria School Board's estimates hit the city to the tune five mills.

"We simply can't go on. There isn't the money to pay for it," Mayor George declared.

The delegation tabled before the Cabinet answers to 38 of the 40 questionnaires sent out to municipal councils, showing huge increases in all districts in school estimates for 1948. In some instances costs were shown to have more than doubled in two years.

Victoria city's share of the cost in Greater Victoria were estimated for 1948 at $640,505, against $517,500 last year and $448,783 in 1946.

Mayor George's submission to the Government was that instead of municipalities being required to find 81 per cent of public school costs as at present, the province should assume 60 per cent.

Time for Showdown

School costs beyond the ability of the municipalities to pay from their present resources are forcing the showdown in provincial-municipal relations which we predicted. The first round of that came yesterday, when the united executive of the British Columbia Union of Municipalities told the Provincial Government flatly that civic councils will reject School Board estimates unless the Province assumes a fairer share of the educational bill of costs. The plight of British Columbia hospitals was likewise stressed, in a two-hour session at which the municipalities produced startling proof of their case in soaring budget costs.

With the Union's recommendation that the Government impose a sales tax to cover the cost of education we have disagreed from the start. It has been pointed out already that if the Province imposed such a tax inevitably it would keep the proceeds, or the lion's share of them, for itself; appeasing the municipalities with a small handout under one heading or another. That has been the whole history of provincial-municipal relations since the 1920's, when the Province took away four local sources of revenues which the municipalities enjoyed. What is required is a completely new deal for the municipalities, one in which the Province from its present revenues—which have never been higher—will make a permanent adjustment of the disparity of the two cases.

What the municipalities proved to the Province yesterday comes to the fact that they are now paying in excess of sixty-one per cent of the cost of education, against the Government's thirty-nine per cent; that they cannot afford to go on doing it, and will reject current school estimates if not helped substantially and helped now. Mayor George's suggestion that the Province assume sixty per cent of those costs was wholly reasonable, and indeed more modest and restrained than it might well have been. Educational and hospital costs are only a part of the difficulty, as has been pointed out. Had the municipalities asked for a return in full of all their former revenues under local taxation from the five chief sources that applied in the 1920's they would have been abundantly within their rights.

Soaring Costs

Proving the need for immediate action on school costs in any event, the executive of the Union tabled budget figures for the last three years, including the current estimates. This showed that Vancouver city school costs have risen from $3,745,595 in 1946, to $4,126,149 in 1947, with $4,441,018 asked for in 1948. In Victoria city the corresponding totals are $448,762, $517,508, and $640,505 respectively, in Saanich, $167,147, $175,308, and $247,590; in Oak Bay, $128,365, $133,130, and $174,872. In North Cowichan the costs rose from $35,930 to $59,937 in the same three years; in Duncan, from $17,939 to $29,963; in Nanaimo, from $187,545 to $222,773 in two years; in Port Alberni, from $18,596 to $26,174 in three years. Slocan was cited as one example of the hinterland. With a tax roll of 66 people, 31 of whom are in receipt of public assistance, the school bill rose from $870 in 1940 to $3,956 in 1948. When it is remembered that it is the Province that sets the curriculum and calls the tune, the degree to which the municipalities are paying the piper becomes even more marked.

Obviously the Province will have to take action to assume more of the costs of education, if not all of them. Likewise it must find some remedy for the broken-down conditions of hospital financing throughout British Columbia. Beyond that, the cities' plight with roads and new services necessitated by the fast inflow of population cannot be ignored much longer. At present the Province absorbs the principal revenues, and leaves the risen costs to the cities. That is the basic condition and it must be altered. There is little need, however, to suggest that the Province requires fresh taxation to take care of that. What is needed is a juster and fairer division of those revenues which it has rolled into fat accumulated surpluses in the past.

Expansion to West

The maxim that possession is nine out of ten points of the law has seldom been better illustrated than by a glance at the map of Europe as it stands today. Communist expansion has engulfed entirely the Eastern half of that continent, the result of steady Russian pressure to the west backed by the occupying threat of the Red Army. Only where the counter-resistent of positive action by the major Western democracies could be applied, as in Greece and the occupying zones of Germany and Austria outside Russian influence, has the Soviet expansion been halted. The law for half of Europe is now Russian law, unprejudiced by any niceties of ethical consideration.

The bare recital of Soviet expansion, successful far beyond the dream of even the most imperialistic Czar, is ominous. It began with the Baltic States—Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania—in 1940. It followed with part of Finland, and Yugoslavia, 1944; Albania and Poland, 1945; Romania, 1946; Hungary, 1947; Bulgaria and Czecho-Slovakia, 1948. One by one these ancient and independent European states have been swallowed into the Russian orbit. While the Western Allies fought to free them from one form of tyranny, Soviet Russia schemed to replace Nazi rule with its own tyrannical system.

With Czecho-Slovakia now sucked into the Communistic maw, Soviet eyes are turning to Finland. Already mulcted of part of its territory as a result of the Russo-Finnish conflict, a state of tension is reported to exist at Helsinki because of a sudden request by Stalin that Finland should sign a pact with Russia similar to those which tie its ten satellites tightly to Moscow. This may well be the prelude to the now familiar pattern of intimidation and encroachment. After Finland there will be Sweden and Norway lying adjacent to the Russian orbit, close enough for the threat of similar coercion.

Delayed Adjustment

The Saskatchewan Government has announced a $5 monthly increase in the amount to be paid old age pensioners of that province, raising the total pension to $35. This, it should be remembered, is a ten months' delay in righting a wrong.

Last year when the Federal Government raised the basic rate of the pension to $30 per month Saskatchewan authorities immediately canceled the $5 bonus payment it had been making to pensioners in common with other provinces in view of rising living costs. Other provinces continued to pay the bonus, which in British Columbia was raised to $10, making the total monthly pension payment here $40. It thus remained for the only Socialist administration in the country to enrich its powerful coffers at the expense of older and poorer citizens, on whose behalf Socialism claims to hold an exclusive interest.

Acts speak louder than specious doctrines. The additional payment now announced by Saskatchewan is not so much an increase as restitution for an inexcusable deduction.

James Scott

Not many are left now of the stalwart band of pioneers who took a defensive part in the Riel Rebellion of 1885 and in so doing cleared the way for the development of Western Canada. The death this week of Mr. James Scott of this city thins the number by one more. He had reached the age of 83 years in a life spent mainly in the West, to which he contributed a worthwhile quota of service in different fields of activity.

No fewer than 57 of his years were passed in Victoria, which made him a citizen of long standing in this community, to which he came from the prairies in 1891. Apart from his daily work as a foreman bookbinder, his interests were widespread. As an old Toronto militiaman, his enthusiasm for military matters caused him to serve with the old Fifth Regiment at the turn of the century. He took part in sports and other community interests and held responsible positions in a number of local organizations.

Mr. Scott was the type of citizen all cities need to promote the general welfare of their community, lending a helping hand wherever it could best serve a useful cause. His long life brought him a wide circle of friends and acquaintances who will regret sincerely the passing of a pioneer citizen of the West and of this area in particular. His life was well spent.

Seen in Passing

Just two days remain in the "February Shower of Dimes," today and Monday. After that the campaign will close, and this opportunity for the public to show its appreciation of the fine work being done for little children at Queen Alexandra Solarium will be gone for another year. The unofficial objective of the ninth annual crusade is $10,000, and that sum should be reached and passed before Monday. There is no cause more worthy, and few closer to the public's heart.

We hesitate to mention it, but crocuses were showing above ground in Victoria yesterday. They are a month behind the pussy willows and much has happened in between, but still they looked as if they meant it. Five gales in a row have been a serious reversal of Vancouver Island's weather. If the sun is doing that, we trust that it will recover soon from its spots or whatever else may be ailing it. It is high time the crocuses were out.

To a Skylark

Hail to thee, blithe spirit!
Bird thou never wert,
That from heaven, or near it,
Pourest thy full heart
In profuse strains of unpremeditated art.

Higher still and higher
From the earth thou springest
Like a cloud of fire;
The blue deep thou wingest,
And singing still dost soar, and soaring ever singest.

In the golden lightning
Of the sunken sun,
O'er which clouds are bright'ning,
Thou dost float and run;
Like an unbodied joy whose race is just begun.

The pale purple even
Melts around thy flight;
Like a star of heaven,
In the broad day-light
Thou art unseen, but yet I hear thy shrill delight . . .

FOR BARBARA'S CAR

(Peterborough Examiner)

A simple licence plate bearing the usual Ontario crown and instead of numbers, a laurel wreath would be a meet and proper designation for the car of our crowned Olympian.

A SIMPLE FORM

(Toronto Financial Post)

The income tax form for those [illegible] has been greatly simplified. It still isn't as simple as one suggested by a tormented form filler. His contained only four lines:

1. What was your income for the year?
2. What were your expenses?
3. How much have you left?
4. Send it in.

EASY ROAD TO CULTIVATE

(Calgary Herald)

We have often thought that there are too many organizations in Canada, that they hold too many meetings, and that they hear too many speeches. People might be better off if they listened less, and thought more. They might be better off if they studied things for themselves, instead of expecting somebody else to do the studying for them, and condense it into a 30-minute oration.

TWO MINUTES

(St. Catharines Standard)

Can a wife steal furniture from hubby? Yes, she can and it is a criminal action. But Judge D. B. Coleman held at Whitby that to lay and pursue a theft charge of that kind was an abuse of the Criminal Code and, as far as he was concerned, he would have none of it.

The Crown insisted that the woman, having been found guilty, a sentence was mandatory on the Judge. With the utmost regret, the Judge registered a conviction, but he derived complete satisfaction surely in getting around the law, practically beating the statutes or the Criminal Code, when he imposed sentence of two minutes imprisonment.

Sentence started right in court and ended there, the Judge and other officials pulling their watches out. It is not recorded if any had stop watches.

HAIR-RAISING PLOT

(Windsor Star)

Almost unnoted in the current news is the report that two Japanese professors have evolved a permanent and infallible cure (so they say) for baldness. Injections of Vitamin B have raised a fuzz in one month, and a plentiful crop of hair in three months, on Japs who have long been as bald as hard-boiled eggs.

The consequence of this nefarious plot are so far generally overlooked, but by the time the National Wig-Makers Association, the Amalgamated Toupee-Weavers Union and the Federation of Scalp Tonic Manufacturers get hep to the full implications of the sinister Oriental machination, somebody's goin' to demand that another atom bomb or two be unlimbered.

GOOD NEIGHBORS

(Ottawa Journal)

We have small patience with talk of "American imperialism"; not any more patience than we have with talk of "British imperialism," which in the light of British contemporary action is just plain stupid. Our own idea is that the American and British peoples are doing more at this time for justice and decency on the earth than any other peoples in the world, and that our job should be to strive with all our might to help their work along. Our own idea also is that instead of being suspicious and pin-pricking towards the United States we should be thanking God for the boon of such good neighbors.

HONGKONG PAY

(Toronto Globe and Mail)

Like all the evidence of the Hongkong blunder, the pay issue was cloaked in wartime secrecy. The manifest injustice of this narrow, selfish policy has only now become apparent to the public. The wrong, having been discovered, must be righted. Parliament has only one honorable course to follow. It should demand that the pay accounts of the 231 officers and 2,198 other ranks concerned be reopened and credited with the campaign bonus laid down for Pacific service. It should be paid forthwith to those veterans who survived and to the next of kin of those who gave their lives in carrying out courageously a hopeless assignment. And, like any honorable debtor, the Government will pay interest on what it has withheld.

Where blanks occur in the table the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

Questionnaire Brings Amusing Answers

By EGON LARSEN

LONDON.—Many overseas tourists and businessmen who plan to visit Britain, frequently have somewhat hazy and inadequate ideas of what they will find when they arrive and often, therefore, they are agreeably surprised at what they discover during their travels. This is proved by an inquiry conducted by Britain's Travel Association (the tourist division of the British Tourist and Holidays Board) among those who visited the United Kingdom during 1947. The results have now been received, many unexpected criticisms have been uttered and much praise volunteered. A large number of suggestions have been passed to the appropriate quarters.

Apart from questions relating to the district visited, routes, accommodation, expense, length of stay and the purpose of the visit, more subjective questions were also asked. "Did you enjoy your stay? Do you expect to come again soon? Did you have a friendly reception? Have you any comments on the services provided for you? How could your stay have been improved?"

Some three-quarters of all those who completed the questionnaire expressed their pleasant surprise at finding living conditions in Britain better than they had expected. An overwhelming majority of them commented specially upon the courtesy and helpfulness of officials—customs, police and traffic—and the absence of the tipping racket which is so unpleasant in many countries.

A visitor from Ceylon said that the real nature of conditions in Britain should be made public throughout the world. He had expected to find a starving, half-clad nation living in old air-raid shelters! An American found London's taxis "amusing"—but very efficient. Many questionnaires made the time-honored reproach that the British cannot make coffee. On the other hand an actress from California said that she preferred English bread to American because it had more "body," and the baths because they were bigger!

An Australian businessman regretted that he was unable to take any rationed articles, such as Scottish cloth, home with him as presents. This wish can now be fulfilled by overseas visitors who can have such goods sent to them—either to their ships or direct to their home addresses.

The manager of a Brazilian department store declared that he had been very well-fed, and was most impressed by the orderliness, discipline and courtesy shown in public life. Two visitors from Lucerne complained about London's "Cockney" dialect: "Why does everybody at the stations speak only this language? It is very difficult to understand." An American lady who came to attend the Edinburgh Music Festival gave the following advice to the inhabitants of the United Kingdom: "If you could only arrange the weather, too, you would have nothing to worry about!"

Many of these visitors may have taken the final decision to visit London after studying a highly original map of the city which Sir Bracewell Smith, Lord Mayor of London in 1947, sent to his fellow mayors in 1,000 cities in the British Commonwealth and America. This map was drawn by Kerry Lee for the British Travel Association, and is called "London, the Bastion of Liberty." It is based on unusual cartographical principles and gives a bird's-eye view of London, past and present.

The map was a great success in every city it reached, and requests for further copies come in daily. The former United States Ambassador in London, the late Mr. John Winant, took a large batch of these maps home with him; one of them was hung in the Library of the Congress Building in Washington, and another in the White House.

Britain's Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Stafford Cripps, estimates that tourists from overseas brought Britain $64 million in foreign currency in 1947—nearer $100 million if sea and air passages are included. This was a good result from the first postwar season. The director-general of the Travel Association, Mr. J. G. Bridges, following his recent visit to Canada and the United States, has declared that all sea passages were almost fully booked up for the height of the holiday season, and that he had assured people everywhere that visitors would not rob Britons of their rations.—United Kingdom Information Bureau.

Observation Car

By G.B.

A clubman who uses a bicycle for exercise hopped on his machine one Saturday night and headed for the city with the intention of playing several games of billiards. He parked the bicycle on Broad Street, enjoyed an evening at his club, completely forgot the machine, and went home on the last street car. Next morning he shouldered his bag of golf clubs and prepared to bicycle to Gorge Vale, but the machine was not in its customary place in the woodshed. Then it dawned upon him he had left it on Broad Street the previous night. While riding to the city on an early street car he fully expected to find that somebody had stolen the bicycle. His faith in humanity was restored when he found it still against the curb. To add to his delight there was a $2 bill lying in the gutter beside the machine . . . "What do you think of atomic war?" a customer asked Tobacconist Martin. "It would be a case of one nation getting the drop on another," Martin replied . . . "What is a financier?" Bill, the Broad Street barber, asked while working on a crossword puzzle at lunchtime. "A financier is a man who can earn money faster than his family can spend it," Barber Ben chuckled . . . "I am trying to cut my expenses to the bone, but I find the price of bones has trebled," the Keating Squire told a friend . . . From Milner, Ross & Company, Toronto: "Since its inception, the petroleum industry has been plagued with recurrent periods of oversupply. Now, however, for the first time in history demand has outstripped supply, and there are no prospects that this situation will terminate at least until 1950 or 1951. The freezing of petroleum prices more rigidly than those of coal stimulated the conversion of heating units to fuel oil, and is a major factor in the present scarcity. The United States, which accounts for about 60 per cent of world production, is now for the first time an importer of petroleum."

New Appointments For C.P.R. Men

VANCOUVER, Feb. 27.—Appointment of J. N. McPherson as general freight agent (sales and service) for the Pacific region of the Canadian Pacific Railway was announced today by K. M. Fetterly, new assistant freight traffic manager here.

Also announced was the appointment of C. D. Edsforth as assistant general freight agent (rates and divisions). Positions take in the United States West Coast agencies of the C.P.R. as well as the British Columbia territory.

The appointments follow a widespread reorganization of the company's freight traffic department under G. Allan MacNamara, vice-president of traffic.

Communist Party Claims Strength

MOSCOW, Feb. 27 (AP)—Russia celebrated today the 100th anniversary of the Communist manifesto.

Moscow newspapers devoted most of their front pages to the occasion. Trud, trade-union organ, said in its commentary:

"The power and vitality of the ideas of the manifesto are shown in the fact that 100 years ago there were not more than 300 Communists in the world.

"Today there are 20,000,000 persons in the ranks of the Communist Party."

MEMORIAL ARENA

Sir,—It did my heart good to read in your columns on Sunday, February 22, the letter on the Memorial Arena by Alfred Carmichael, Oak Bay, and to learn that there are many in that municipality who do not agree with the ruling of the Oak Bay Council in this matter. One of the other councils adopted the attitude of waiting to see what the others did, before they acted. To me, a good idea, is a good idea, regardless of what the other fellow thinks. I feel sure that there are many in the surrounding municipalities who would like to see a much more co-operative attitude by councillors, to the Memorial Arena project.

If the people of the surrounding municipalities desire to have their respective councils help, I'm sure a few signed petitions would bring the desired results. What if it does cost us all a bit more to have this project completed, doesn't it cost us a little bit more for everything? On the other hand, aren't most people receiving a little bit more?

If the municipalities do not wish to help, then, when the arena is built, I would suggest an arena card for citizens of Victoria, and for those who have given suitable donations, regardless of municipality, and have two admission rates to every event, children included; one for those with cards, and a higher rate for those without. Suggestion of some such action as this now, by the Victoria Council might, by public demand, cause the municipality councils to reconsider their decisions.

I would further suggest another Memorial Arena donation drive, for I am certain there are many of us who would gladly donate again, and also there are many who have come here since the last drive, who would welcome the opportunity to donate to such a worthy and necessary project. I'm sure the arena committee would find many willing helpers if it would inaugurate such a drive.

If we who live so close together, work together, shop together, go to the same places of entertainment, worship, etc., together, can't get along in a more co-operative manner, then what hope is there for the nations of the world who differ in race, color, creed, as well as language?

DENAZIFICATION ENDING

BERLIN, FEB. 27 (AP).—Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Russian military governor, said today denazification in the Russian zone of Germany will be completed March 10.

He said all former Nazis not classified as war criminals, who had been put out of public office or industrial posts now could qualify to get their former jobs back "by loyal and honest work in the course of time."

West opened the heart king and cashed the ace also, then shifted to the jack of clubs. Declarer won the trick, and after observing that his contract depended entirely on the trump suit, eagerly led the spade jack through West.

Before going into West's play, let us consider South's selection of the jack. If the outstanding spades split 2-2, South could lead any card from his own hand, put up dummy's ace, then return a second round. If, however, West had the king-queen-small and East the blank ten, the play of the jack was vital to hold the opponents to one trump trick; and moreover, there was another condition that made the jack play highly attractive.

It was this "other condition" that worked out. West covered the spade jack with the king. Dummy's ace thereupon dropped East's blank queen, and the spade was the defenders' only remaining jewel.

South's play had been good, but the same cannot be said for West's. He most certainly should not have covered the jack—there was nothing to be gained by so doing. If South had led the jack from queen-jack, West could just as well wait and cover the queen if and when led; but there was the chance that South had tried a fast one—that he lacked the queen—and thus here was a double reason for West not to cover the first honor led through him.

Air Force Member Criticizes Army M.L.A. for "Propaganda"

EDMONTON, Feb 27 (CP)—The Air Force representative in the Alberta Legislature today criticized the Army member for making "political propaganda" and condemned the Dominion Government for failing to prepare adequately for the defence of Canada

F. C. Colborne (Air Force) said in the Throne Speech debate he wished to dissociate himself from [illegible] member and also Provincial Liberal party leader, contending the statements were "nothing but political propaganda and poor propaganda at that."

Mr. Colborne read a newspaper item reporting Mr Prowse as saying the Social Credit Government might make a $2,000,000 profit on a land-clearing scheme for veterans, and added he hoped the Army member would be able to tell the House that he was misquoted.

Declaring that no veteran in Canada is getting as good a deal as that offered by the Alberta Government the Air Force member contended that a recent change in the contract with the land-clearing firm had caused no change as far as the veterans are concerned and "there has not been one iota of change from the original deal which was supported wholeheartedly by "all three of us" (armed forces members) when it was first proposed.

Mr. Colborne stressed that although he and L. D. Ward (Navy) had repudiated Mr. Prowse as their spokesman, he had hoped the Army member would refrain from expressing himself on matters of particular [illegible]

Mr. Prowse adjourned the debate and when he speaks Monday it will be his first speech in the House as Alberta Liberal party leader.

Welfare Groups Prepare For Emergency

OTTAWA Feb. 27 (CP)—Welfare workers are drawing up their battlelines to meet the possibility of another depression.

"Public and private welfare agencies are beginning to wonder who's going to carry the load in any future economic emergency," R. E. G. Davis of the Canadian Welfare Council, said tonight in an interview.

The council's executive director said the prime purpose of this move was to learn what the agencies were doing to guard against any recurrence of the difficulties they encountered during the "grim 30's"

Present provisions for the maintenance of families facing hardship were a "tangle of confused policies, low standards, and limiting residence regulations," he said.

As for protection given by unemployment insurance "it would be a mistake to think that unemployment insurance payments do more than partially meet today's cost of living

"Besides, rights to insurance benefits are finally used up, and breadwinners have nowhere to turn but to private charitable agencies," said the director.

Private agencies should not be expected to give assistance to persons suffering unemployment or other situations that may be national in extent, said Mr Davis

Bond Support Again Reduced

TORONTO, Feb. 27 (CP) — The Bank of Canada today further reduced the support it has been giving to Dominion of Canada bonds in a move which is interpreted as setting higher interest rates for money.

The bank, last January 5, removed the firm bids it had been making daily and quotations on long-term issues fell from around $104 to $102. However, since then, it has been known that the bank would buy bonds at $102

Today dealers were informed that the bank was not buying at that price. There were unconfirmed reports that it would deal at $100.50

In the meantime bond dealings are in an uncertain state, and dealers stated it might require two or three days to establish their real values.

Report Record Revenues In Quebec for 1947-48

QUEBEC, FEB. 27 (CP). — Quebec Provincial Treasurer Onesime Gagnon reported tonight in his budget speech that provincial revenues during the current fiscal year ending March 31 would reach the record figure of $166,980,000, exceeding estimates by nearly $20,000,000. Mr. Gagnon forecast revenues during the coming 1948-49 fiscal year of $142,411,000, with an over-all surplus of $420,543

The Treasurer's figures for the current year were based on ten months' actual operation and a forecast of results in the remaining two months.

He estimated Quebec Province will have a surplus in the current year on ordinary account of $49,012,000, with an over-all surplus of $1,640,000 after capital expenditures of $41,272,000.

In the coming year the surplus on ordinary account is calculated at $17,271,543 with proposed capital expenditure of $16,851,000 bringing the over-all surplus down to the figure of $420,543

No taxation changes were proposed.

Mr. Gagnon estimated that during the coming fiscal year ordinary expenditure will rise from the 1947-48 provisional figure of $122,968,000 to $126,139,457.

He said that out of the surplus on ordinary account in the current year the Government carried out "important undertakings of a permanent nature" which added to provincial assets. The Government would follow the same policy in 1948-46.

...Oddities...

MOSCOW, Feb. 27 (AP).—For 66 years, The Evening Moscow disclosed today, Russians have been ahead of the times—by .005 seconds.

It was this way:

The country bases its time on Moscow time. Moscow time is determined by observations at Schternberg Astronomical University. These observations are made from a post presumed to be on the zero time meridian.

The newspaper said this post was checked in 1882. When it was checked again recently, the story added, the post was found to be 1¼ metres (about five feet) off the zero meridian.

"This means," said the paper, "that Moscow time has been ahead .005 second. This seemingly worthless correction has significance in geodetic work.

"The signals for correct time, which are sent over the air, now will be sent with the correction."

The farmer went for a dollar's worth of gas and his mule team. He pulled the taxi out of the mud and back through it again after the groceries had been delivered at the farm.

James collected $6 for his fare and then forked over $4 for the farmer for pulling him out of the mud.

In 1939 Britain had nine battleships, two battlecruisers, four aircraft carriers, 26 cruisers, 70 destroyers and 30 submarines, the official "Return of Fleets" said.

Today's statement elaborated the Navy estimates for 1948-49, published last Tuesday and showing naval expenditure cut by nearly £44,000,000 ($176,000,000) to a total of £153,000,000.

Government Bill Will Bolster Amount of Wheat Board Control

OTTAWA, Feb. 27 (CP).—Trade Minister Howe announced today to the Commons that the Government is taking the power, now held by Parliament, to make periodic advances in the initial wheat payment but said an increase now being planned will not be announced until the enabling legislation becomes law.

Moving a resolution preliminary to a bill to amend the Canadian Wheat Board Act, he also disclosed.

1. The Government, while taking power to place the domestic marketing of barley and oats under the Wheat Board, will not use this authority, because of constitutional barriers, until the Prairie Provinces have passed complementary legislation.

2 The bill, in giving the Wheat Board control over wheat products as well as wheat, will strengthen control over the basic wheat situation. The board now has no control over the movement of wheat products across provincial boundaries.

3. A pension plan which the board will be authorized to establish will be similar to the Civil Service Pension System and will provide for equal contributions by employees and the board, with the board's contribution being regarded as an expense item.

The resolution promptly ran into a solid block of opposition criticism, with the Progressive Conservative Party, supported by C.C.F. and Social Credit spokesmen, moving an amendment to split it into three separate measures dealing with the wheat price [illegible] barley marketing.

The Progressive Conservative amendment to the wheat resolution was moved by Arthur Ross (P.C. Souris), who termed the resolution nothing more than "political trickery," and said there was no reason why the new initial payment should not be included in the enabling bill.

For Quick Cough Relief, Try This Home Mixture

You'll be surprised how quickly and easily you can soothe a bad winter cough, when you try this well known recipe. It gives you four times as much cough medicine for your money and you'll find it very pleasant and dependable, for real relief.

Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed—no trouble at all. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup. Then put 2½ ounces of Pinex (obtained from any druggist) into a 16 oz. bottle. Fill up with your syrup and you have 16 ounces of medicine that will surprise you by its quick action. It never spoils, lasts a family a long time, and tastes fine—children love it.

This home mixture takes right hold of a severe cough. For real results, you'll say it's splendid. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and quickly eases soreness and difficult breathing.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for its soothing effect on throat irritations. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

Pinex Saves Money. Comforting Relief. Easy To Mix.

It takes more than kisses to keep a man happy! It takes brains. The sure way to turn a man into a fault-finding grouch is to feed him wrong. You must not only give him enough food but enough of the right kind of food.

One "protective" food a man needs every day is Kellogg's All-Bran. It does two important jobs to give him that lusty, driving energy he must have to succeed in life.

First, All-Bran is made only from the outer layers of the wheat grain. That is the vital part so unusually rich in iron and other essential food elements he simply must have.

Second, All-Bran is guaranteed on a double-your-money-back basis to keep him regular naturally. And, if you want to enjoy living with him, one thing you must help your husband avoid is that "jumpy," irritable feeling constipation causes.

Let All-Bran help you. Serve it every day as a cereal with fruit, or in delicious bran muffins. Get some now. Clip this as a reminder.

Guaranteed to KEEP YOU "REGULAR" NATURALLY*

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, Feb. 27 (AP)—A late rally canceled a good part of early losses in grains on the Board of Trade today. Prices dropped as much as 4 1-2 cents at the start. Rains over a wide area of the southwestern Winter wheat belt caused the early selling. Wheat paced the the decline, but corn and oats also were weak.

Winnipeg Grain

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27 (CP).—Oats and barley futures prices were irregular on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today with local and commission house selling prompted by weaknesses in the Chicago market. Before close, however, a temporary rally was staged, reducing extreme losses, aided partly by malting interests taking a substantial portion of barley.

How many of these dollars have you?

Today a dollar may be harmful or helpful:

If it is spent in competition with many other dollars to buy goods that are scarce, it tends to drive prices up. So, if spent needlessly, it is a harmful dollar.

But if it is placed in life insurance for future needs, it does not compete in this way with other dollars. In fact, part of it is reinvested in farms, industries and construction, thus helping produce more goods which, in turn, will tend to bring prices down. So it is a helpful dollar.

How fortunate that in Canada each year there are over two hundred and fifty million of these helpful life insurance dollars working against higher prices!

So when you buy life insurance to protect the future for yourself and your family, you are also helping to stabilize living costs.

Little Stories for Bedtime - - -

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

TOMMY TIT MAKES GOOD HIS BOAST

"Dee, dee, dee, chickadee! See me! See me!" Tommy Tit kept saying this over and over as he flew from the Green Forest up through the Old Orchard on his way to Farmer Brown's dooryard, and his voice was merry. In fact, his voice was the merriest, cheeriest sound to be heard that bright, snapping cold morning. To be sure, there were other voices, but they were not merry, nor were they cheery. There was the voice of Sammy Jay, but it sounded peevish and discontented. And there was the voice of Blacky the Crow, but it sounded harsh and unpleasant. And there was the voice of Chatterer the Red Squirrel, but Chatterer was scolding, just from habit, and so his voice was not pleasant to hear.

So everyone who heard Tommy Tit's cheery voice that cold Winter morning had to smile. Yes, sir, they had to smile, even Sammy Jay and Blacky the Crow. They just couldn't help themselves. When Tommy reached the stone wall that separated the Old Orchard from Farmer Brown's dooryard, his sharp eyes were not long in finding Peter Rabbit and Happy Jack the Gray Squirrel and Chatterer the Red Squirrel hiding in the old wall, where they could peep out and see all that happened in Farmer Brown's dooryard. Looking back through the Old Orchard he saw what seemed like a little bit of the blue, blue sky flitting silently from tree to tree. It was Sammy Jay. Over in the very top of a tall maple tree a long way off was a spot of black. Tommy Tit didn't need to be told that it was Blacky the Crow, and that that was as near as Blacky dared come.

Tommy fairly bubbled over with joy. He knew what it all meant. He knew that Peter Rabbit and Happy Jack and Chatterer and Sammy Jay and Blacky the Crow had come to see him make good his boast that he would eat from the hand of Farmer Brown's boy, and that not one of them really believed that he would do it. He was tickled all over and cut up all sorts of capers just for pure joy. Finally he flew over to the maple tree that grows close by Farmer Brown's house.

"Dee, dee, dee, chickadee! See me! See me!" called Tommy Tit, and his voice sounded cheerier than ever and merrier than ever.

Then the door of Farmer Brown's house opened and out stepped Farmer Brown's boy and looked up at Tommy Tit, and the look in his eyes was gentle and good to see. He pursed up his lips and from them came the softest, sweetest whistle, and it sounded like "Phoe-be."

Peter Rabbit pinched himself to be sure that he was awake, for it was Tommy Tit's own love note, and if Peter had not been looking straight at Farmer Brown's boy he would have been sure that it was Tommy himself who had whistled.

"Dee, dee, dee! See me!" cried Tommy Tit

"Phoe-be," whistled Farmer Brown's boy again.

"Phoe-be," replied Tommy Tit, and it was hard to say which was the softest and sweetest.

"Phoe-be," whistled Farmer Brown's boy once more, and held out his hand. In it was a cracked hickory nut.

"Dee, dee, dee! See me!" cried Tommy Tit and flitted down from the maple tree right on to the hand of Farmer Brown's boy, and his bright little eyes twinkled merrily as he helped himself to a bit of nut meat.

Peter Rabbit looked at Happy Jack, and Happy Jack looked at Chatterer, and all three looked as if they couldn't believe their own eyes. Then they looked back at Farmer Brown's boy, and there on his head sat Tommy Tit.

"Dee, dee, dee, chickadee! See me! See me!" called Tommy Tit, and his voice was merrier than ever, for he had made good his boast.

Annual Concert By Students Well Presented

Songs, dances and a gay operetta, together with choral numbers were featured last night when students of the Victoria High School presented the opening performance of their annual Spring Festival under the direction of Miss Norma Doug-[illegible]

The choir sang most effectively a 17th century chorale, "Alleluia," the last of the opening group. June Day, a student of the Dinnie Rix School of Dancing, did a clever interpretation of "Anitra's Dance" by Grieg and Irene Collie, a talented young violinist, played Bela's "Song of the Puszta."

A group of East Indian students were featured in a well-staged and colourful sketch "Land of the Lotus Flower," in which the opening and closing tableaux were particularly pleasing. Louise Martin took the soprano solo in the charming little middle scene. She has a fresh, clear young voice which shows great promise.

"The Land of the Jasmine Flower" showed a group of young Chinese-Canadians, wearing the costumes of New China, who sang choruses and solos. The grouping of this number was excellent.

FRENCH SKIT

A gay little French skit, "L'Amier Medade," amused both audience and players, and a dainty "Pays de la Fleur-de-Lis" also in French, were favorites with the audience. The dancing of the French Minuet was delightful.

An operetta "Over the Border," by Cyril Chave, was presented in four scenes. The time, shortly before the Battle of Culloden, in 1746, and the setting, in the glens of the border country, lent themselves to rousing choruses of the old Scottish songs and the young "chieftains" and followers played their roles with much enthusiasm. John Goult as "MacDonald," leader of the clan, was particularly earnest. He has a good voice, and knows how to move on the stage. Diana Clifford was good as the young heroine. Ray Pritchard as Sir William Hardy was the English enemy who turned out to be a friend in need.

An orchestra, Evelyn Prisk at the piano, and Dorran Bell and Roberta Graham as first and second violins, played between the numbers and for the dances.

Harry Dee opened the festival in the absence of Harry Smith, and the program is being repeated at 8.15 tonight.

Technicolor Musical Opens at the York

From 20th Century-Fox makers of such memorable Technicolor musical hits as "Pin Up Girl," "Sweet Rosie O'Grady" and "Coney Island," comes Damon Runyan's "Irish Eyes Are Smiling," acclaimed one of the greatest laugh-and-song hits of the past few seasons.

The Technicolor triumph starring Monty Woolley, June Haver and Dick Haymes, opens today at the York Theatre.

Also starred in the brilliant cast of the film are Anthony Quinn, Beverly Whitney, Maxie Rosenbloom, Veda Ann Borg, Clarence Kolb and the Metropolitan Opera Singers Leonard Warren and Blanche Thebom.

DOMINION THEATRE "Storm In a Teacup," the hilarious comedy unreeling on the screen of the Dominion Theatre, stars Vivian Leigh and Rex Harrison in the leading roles. The story tells in charming fashion how a young reporter in a little Scottish town aroused a whole nation against an overbearing politician because of his unfair treatment of a delightful old Irish woman who couldn't afford a licence for her beloved mongrel, Patsy.

PLAZA THEATRE In her latest picture, Hunt Stromberg's romantic mystery drama which ends tonight at the Plaza Theatre, Lucille Ball plays a smart, alert, forthright American girl who is on her own in London. She helps Scotland Yard track down a murderous maniac, and several times faces violent death. In "Lured" Lucille shares top acting honors with George Sanders, Charles Coburn and Boris Karloff.

ROYAL THEATRE Ida Lupino and Errol Flynn co-star in Warner Brothers' filmation of Margaret Kennedy's best-seller "Escape Me Never." In the film which will end tonight at the Royal Theatre, Flynn portrays a vagabond musician traveling through Italy, Switzerland and England. Eleanor Parker and Gig Young head the supporting cast.

ATLAS THEATRE Two hundred extras were recently paid to do nothing but sit and watch a movie of Bing Crosby and Bob Hope. This unusual situation occurred during production of Paramount's "Road to Rio," the Crosby-Hope-Lamour "road" comedy which will end tonight at the Atlas Theatre. The extras represented passengers watching a movie aboard a luxury liner enroute to Rio de Janeiro. The cast of "Road to Rio," the fifth of the hilarious "road" pictures, also includes the Andrews Sisters, Gale Sondergaard, Frank Faylen and Jerry Colonna, in a surprise appearance.

CAPITOL THEATRE With Robert Paige, Noreen Nash and youngster Ted Donaldson in the leading roles, Eagle-Lion's Cinecolor production of "Red Stallion," the poignant and heart-warming story of a boy's devotion to his horse, will end tonight at the Capitol Theatre. Photographed on location in the breathtaking beauty of the Mount Shasta country of northern California, the color outdoor adventure film has a supporting cast headed by Jane Darwell, Guy Kibbee, Ray Collins and Willie Best.

RIO For the Paramount [illegible] which ends tonight at the Rio Theatre, there are over 30 top stars in the leading roles. Bing Crosby, Betty Hutton, Paulette Goddard, Alan Ladd and Dorothy Lamour, head the all-star cast.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

"DO AS YOU WOULD BE DONE BY"

This expression, about which one of our readers inquires, turns out rather surprising to the researcher. From its old-time flavor, one would expect to find it in the time-honored collections of maxims and proverbs. And while it is among the oldest sayings in English speech, going back to the Wyclif edition of the Bible, which dates from 389, it seems not to have been grist for the mill of the old collectors.

In Wyclif's Luke vi, 31, there is this:

"And as ye wolen that men do to you, and do ye to hem in lyk manere."

In a text dating from the year 1500, but as full of the Middle English spelling that it is more confusing than understandable, the idea is found on its way to proverbial standing.

By the end of the century (1590), in "Sir Thomas More," we find:

"A. says true, let's do as we may be done by."

And then comes the first collection of Proverbs to include this one, D. Fergusson's "Scotch Proverbs," which date 1641:

"Do as ye wald be done to."

The well known Kingley's "Water Babies," whose continuing popularity makes surprising the discovery that it was published as far back as 1863, has this:

"Be a good boy, and do as you would be done by."

Flyers to Compete In Paris Tourney

PARIS, Feb. 27 (Reuters). — R.C.A.F. Flyers, Canadian Olympic hockey champions, and teams from three other countries will compete in a hockey tournament starting tomorrow night and ending March 8.

Teams from Scotland, Czechoslovakia and the Racing Club de Paris will play the Canadians in the round-robin tournament. Two points will be awarded for a victory and one point for a draw with the best goals for-and-against quotient deciding the winner in the event of a tie.

The schedule: Tomorrow, Canada vs. Scotland, France vs. Czechoslovakia. March 4, Czechoslovakia vs. Scotland, Canada vs. France. March 6, Canada vs. Czechoslovakia, France vs. Scotland.

WANDERERS' LINE-UP

Oak Bay Wanderers' line-up for the match with Victoria College this afternoon will be selected from the following: Bain, Beadon, Blythe, Poole, Fraser, Griffiths, Higgs, Hutchison, Jacklin, Johnson, McNeil, Main, Mill, Olson, Prevost, Roberts, Ridler, West, Whittingham, Young

Many a soccer argument will rage pro and con between now and the end of the season over the merits of the rules changes instituted by the Pacific Coast League in an attempt to "streamline" the traditional roundball pastime. Old-timers will likely oppose any changes on the grounds that what was good enough for their grandfathers is good enough for the 1948 soccer player. Moderns are likely to argue that the proposed changes will be a big help in making the game more attractive

Personally, the writer has believed that all soccer needed in Victoria was more co-operation among officials and more good players. And in regard to the latter, more aid for the juveniles in order to produce those needed players. However, the new rules have considerable merit and may do just what they are intended to do—bring more paying customers to the matches.

The rule allowing unlimited substitution of three players looks like a good move. This will give a manager an opportunity to experiment if his club is having a bad afternoon, and may also reduce the number of injuries. Many players are seriously hurt because they remain in the game after a bad shaking up or minor injury. Now they can be taken off and sent back after a needed rest.

Using a stop watch should end much of the kicking out employed by teams to waste time when they are desperately protecting a lead, and which detracts so much from the game. Minor and major penalties for rules infractions may also prove to be a sound idea. For one thing, it should reduce the number of fouls committed outside the penalty areas when a player knows he is likely to get a five or ten-minute rest in the sin-bin, instead of having the other side get a cheap free kick. Also, even the most rugged players may balk at getting a reputation for fouling by picking up too many penalties.

Not to be overlooked is the fact that players will not be so quick to question the decision of the referee if the latter is likely to hand them a five-minute penalty for doing so

Actually, none of the changes will interfere too much with the basic principle of the game, and a fair trial may convince even the most tradition-minded fans that any sport can be improved by changes in keeping with the trend of modern sports fans. In years gone by, the game was the thing. Now, it is strictly a question of dollars, and the idea is to give the paying customer what he wants—that or relegation to the rank of a minor sport.

Champ Gets Close Call Over Cuban

NEW YORK, Feb 27 (AP).—Lightweight champion Ike Williams of Trenton, N.J., barely earned a unanimous 10-round decision in a non-title bout over Kid Gavilan of Havana, Cuba, tonight at Madison Square Garden. Williams weighed 136½, Gavilan 141½.

The cool, efficient 135-pound champion almost knocked out the Cuban in the eighth when he had him on the floor with a count of eight at the bell. However, the bolo-punching Gavilan, with one eye closed during the last four rounds, was in there punching all the way

Referee Ruby Goldstein and Judge Jim Hagen had it for the champion by a 5-4 margin, with one round even. Judge Jack O'Sullivan called it for Williams 6-4. The Associated Press card called it even in rounds with the edge to Williams on the strength of the knockdown.

Coast, Prairie Series Mooted

VANCOUVER, Feb. 27 (CP). — A long-distance rivalry has long existed between supporters of the Pacific Coast Hockey League and the Western Canada senior circuit. It may not settle which loop provides the classiest hockey but a representative from each league may tangle here next month.

Coley Hall, manager of the P.C.H.L.'s Vancouver Canucks, said today that providing his team finished as runner-up in the Northern division he would arrange to bring the W.C.H.L. runner-up here for a comparative test of the strength of the two circuits.

DETROIT, Feb 27 (AP).—Pitcher Hal Newhouser signed his 1948 Detroit Tigers contract this afternoon for a salary estimated around $50,000.

Retirement Ends One of Turf's Great Rivalries

ASSAULT

ARMED

STYMIE'S money-winning record of $816,060 appeared to be safe at moment with two nearest rivals, Armed and Assault, no longer racing. Latter, pride of famed King Ranch, has been permanently retired after winning $626,060, third on money-winning list. Armed may race again but recent poor performances have caused Calumet Farm officials to give their great gelding rest. Armed was consistently called upon to pack 130 pounds and weight impost may have been too much. Calumet Farm gelding has won $773,700 and is within striking distance of Stymie's mark. Owners at one time hoped that horse would earn more than $1,000,000. Both Assault and Armed have proven superior to Stymie in their meetings. Armed beat Stymie twice and Assault won three of five meetings. Former has won 18 stake races while Assault has won 14. Armed's performance last year was one of greatest in turf history. Big gelding set four new track records, won $376,325 and defeated Assault in special match race to prove its superiority. Latter had best year in 1946 when it won "triple crown

Soccer, Wrestling, Rugby On Today's Sport Card

Soccer, Rugby and wrestling fans have a full card to entertain them today but basketball enthusiasts will have a respite from the torrid action that has marked games during the past two weeks

Highlighting the soccer menu is the Pacific Coast League match between North Shore Reds and Victoria United at Royal Athletic Park at 2.30 p.m. The United, strengthened by the return of several of its injured players, will be out to regain a measure of the prestige that it lost last week in absorbing a 7-1 lacing at the hands of Vancouver City.

Fans also have a choice of the McGavin Cup fixture at Beacon Hill between Oak Bay and Esquimalt senior elevens or the Fred Oliver Memorial Cup replay between the Saanich Thistles and Oak Bay intermediate elevens at Windsor Park.

Important Rugby matches are slated. Canadian Scottish tangles with Victoria College in a senior game at Macdonald Park with the second-half title having a bearing on the outcome. At Work Point, the Victoria College and Oak Bay Wanderers intermediate XV's clash in a battle that should decide the second-half crown and at Colville Road, R.C.N. and J.B.A.A. intermediates meet.

Promoter Rocky Brooks presents another mat card at the Bay Street Armoury at 8:30 p.m. featuring Paavo Ketonen of Finland and Tommy Nilan of Australia in a six ten-minute round bout. A special four ten-minute event pits Dick Poppenheim against Vic Short and the semi-windup has Chief Lone Wolf matching holds with Buck Liscombe

The Victoria High School gymnasium is not available to basketball officials tonight and cage fans will have to wait until Monday for further action.

275 To Compete In School Gala

Jim McCague, director of the Greater Victoria Schools Gala, announced last night that the largest entry in years had been received for the annual event, to be held at the Crystal Garden on March 12. A total of 275 entrants, representing 20 schools, will compete.

Victoria High School tops the High School entries with 26 competitors, followed by Oak Bay with 22. Tillicum has 26 entrants in the Elementary Schools division and Lampson 22.

Sir James Douglas School will be defending two trophies—the Canadian Legion Cup for the relay race for grades 7 and 8 boys and the V.A.S.C. Trophy for the elementary schools' aggregate.

The Sir Edward Beatty Trophy, won last year by Victoria High School, goes to the winner of the high school aggregate and the Pendray Cup, held by South Park, is for relay competition by girls of grades 7 and 8.

Louis Impresses In London Bouts

LONDON, Feb. 27 (Reuters). — London tonight caught a fleeting glimpse of the power and skill that have made and kept Joe Louis world heavyweight champion.

The Brown Bomber opened his month of exhibitions at the "Health and Holidays Exhibition" at Earls Court—for which he is getting £20,000 ($80,000).

The champion toyed with Eddie Phillips, 37, former British light-heavyweight champion. Louis was content with rocking him with a left hook

Then Phil Van Niekirk, 23, engaged the champion as if a title were at stake and succeeded in landing two lefts and two rights to the jaw. Louis ripped in two uppercuts to the body and a left to the jaw which clearly shook his opponent.

Executive Named, Plans Announced By Sport Council

At a meeting of the Greater Victoria Sports Council Thursday evening Wally Yeamans and Don Buckin were re-elected to the executive council for a two-year term. Others elected were Reg Clarke, A. J. Harrison and Percy Payne. Members still having one year of a two-year term to serve are Doug Fletcher, Ernie Costain, May Peden and George Cole.

The president, secretary and treasurer will be selected from the executive members at the next council meeting.

It was suggested that each sports organization be asked to stage a game to benefit the British Olympic Food Fund. Each organization will be contacted by letter.

Objectives of the council this year are a central enclosure for amateur sports, preferably softball, track and Canadian football, hard-surfaced tennis courts, and conditioning of present playing surfaces.

Puck Probe Includes Black Hawk

DETROIT, Feb 27 (CP) — The Detroit Times said today it has learned that the hockey betting scandal has reached out to include a member of Chicago Black Hawks.

Previous reports had involved players from Boston Bruins and New York Rangers, alleging that one member of the Boston club bet against his own team and that a Ranger player also was offered a chance to bet on the game.

The Times said it learned the Black Hawk player was "directly linked" with James Tamer, whose arrest last week as an alleged parole breaker, touched off the gambling scandal.

"The information will be presented to National Hockey League president Clarence S. Campbell next Tuesday when Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy meets with law enforcement agencies working on the probe."

The Division Two soccer match between Esquimalt A.A. and Jubilee Pharmacy, previously scheduled for today, has been postponed.

Coast Soccer "Streamlined"; Changes Go Into Effect Soon

Victoria soccer fans will soon see the proposed new rules introduced into league play, it was announced yesterday by Charles Faulkner, secretary of Victoria United, on his return from a meeting at Vancouver.

Referee George Barnes will go to Vancouver next week to receive instruction on the interpretation of the new rules.

The new regulations, planned to streamline the sport, provide for unlimited substitution and bench penalties for infractions.

The game will be timed by a timekeeper with a stop-watch and will eliminate wasted time. Each half, based on actual playing time will be cut to 36 minutes

Bench penalties are divided into three categories—a minor of five minutes, a major of ten minutes and a match penalty for the duration of the game

The list of new penalties for infringements follows

Attempt to Injure — A match penalty shall be imposed on any player who deliberately attempts to injure an opponent, official, manager, coach or trainer in any manner, and the circumstances shall be reported to the B.C. Soccer Commission for further action.

Charging—(a) A minor or major penalty may be imposed on a player who runs or jumps into or charges an opponent violently, or with intent to injure

(b) A minor or major penalty may be imposed on a player who charges a goalkeeper illegally or attempts to kick the ball while it is in possession of the goalkeeper.

Ungentlemanly Conduct — A minor penalty may be imposed if a player commits ungentlemanly conduct, or persistently infringes on any laws of the game, or shows by word or action, dissent from any decision given by the referee.

Fisticuffs — A major or match penalty may be imposed, at the discretion of the referee, on any player who starts a fight, or takes part in one

Foul Language—A minor, major or match penalty may be imposed on any player who uses foul or abusive language.

Penalty Bench—Shall be a compact bench situated at or near the half-way line

Leaving Penalty Bench—A further penalty may be imposed on a player, who on returning to the game does not enter the field at the centre line. No player may at any time leave the penalty bench while serving his penalty. Should he do so, the penalty timekeeper shall signal the referee

A substitute shall be permitted for a player who has been removed from the game on a match penalty. Such substitution, however, shall not take place until ten minutes actual playing time shall have elapsed from the time the penalty was imposed.

Dubious Vote to Cardinals, Red Sox For Series; Yanks, Dodgers Threaten

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP).—We're down to our own private semi-finals in selecting the order of finish in the major league races this year.

The current selections are based on Winter developments and how the clubs seem to stack up on the eve of the start of Spring training. The finals, just before the season opens, may show a radical change.

Here's our Winter book line:

National League — Cardinals, Dodgers, Braves, Giants, Reds, Pirates, Cubs, Phillies.

American League — Red Sox, Yankees, Indians, Tigers, Athletics, Senators, White Sox, Browns.

The Cards are currently selected on the theory they couldn't possibly have a return of the bad luck they had last year. Eddie Dyer has a sound ball club, and if Stan Musial returns to his 1946 form, which he should, it would make a tremendous difference

The Dodgers did it last year, and again will have a young, running ball club. They don't pack the potential punch at the plate that the Cards have, and we like the Card pitching staff a little better

The Braves are improving steadily and in Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn have two top-grade chuckers.

GIANTS LACK HURLING

Pitching uncertainty is the weakness of the Giants. They are steeped in power. If they come up with a couple of 15-game winners, and Johnny Mize and Walker Cooper have the success they had last year, Mel Ott's boys could very well take it all.

The improving Reds still seem to be a little thin, lacking first-grade reserves. Their first team line-up, with Ewell Blackwell heading a good pitching staff, compares favorably with its rivals. Johnny Hopp should help the Pirates, but that club, along with the Cubs and Phils, still is in the throes of rebuilding.

RED SOX QUESTION

Choice of the Red Sox in the American League is made with apprehension. The team is bolstered in the field, particularly by Vernon Stephens, and the new manager, Joe McCarthy, seems to have a magic touch. But the pitching outlook is uncertain.

The Yankees could repeat, of course, particularly if Joe DiMaggio keeps his health. The acquisition of Pitcher Ed Lopat was a shrewd move and may add the necessary strength to the mound staff

The Cleveland infield looks to be as good as any in the business, and Bob Feller heads a fair pitching staff. But we don't think Indians have the all-around strength to go all the way to the top.

The Tigers seem to be the Tigers of 1947 at this writing, but Hal Newhouser should have a better year, and so should Dizzy Trout and Virgil Trucks. The Athletics will bid for the first division largely on a fine pitching staff. The Senators, White Sox and Browns might make the first division, but we're afraid not this year

Rugged Test Faces West Cage Victor

VANCOUVER, Feb 27 (CP).—British Columbia senior basketball champions who will travel East this year to defend the Dominion crown won by Vancouver Clover Leafs last year, face a stiff test.

Ebbie Scoering, Western vice-president of the Canadian Basketball Association, said today the Dominion playoffs would be played in Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens May 1, 3, 6, 7 and 8.

The British Columbia title holders will play the Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba champs in the home town of the provincial winner. The British Columbia lads face a schedule of seven games in nine nights if they prove victorious over Alberta and Saskatchewan.

The first encounter, a two-game, total-goal affair against the Alberta titleholders goes on April 23-24

An Olympic basketball trial also is being arranged for play in Toronto, to take place a week after the Dominion finals

The C.A.B.A. Dominion finalists and the Inter-Collegiate Association finalists will complete a round-robin series with the victor slated for the Olympic Games in August.

Clover Leafs, under the name of Meralomas, currently favored to represent British Columbia in the national chase, won the title here last year in five games against Windsor Assumption College

Bowling Winners Receive Awards

Prizes were presented to the winners of the recent city tenpin championships at a smoker in the Boilermakers Hall last night with approximately 75 keglers in attendance.

WANDERERS' LINE-UP

Oak Bay Wanderers' line-up for the match with Victoria College this afternoon will be selected from the following. Bain, Beadon, Slythe, Foote, Fraser, Griffiths, Higgs, Hutchison, Jacklin, Johnson, McNeil, Main, Mill, Olson, Prevost, Roberts, Ridler, West, Whittingham, Young.

Many a soccer argument will rage pro and con between now and the end of the season over the merits of the rules changes instituted by the Pacific Coast League in an attempt to "streamline" the traditional roundball pastime. Old-timers will likely oppose any changes on the grounds that what was good enough for their grandfathers is good enough for the 1948 soccer player Moderns are likely to argue that the proposed changes will be a big help in making the game more attractive.

Personally, the writer has believed that all soccer needed in Victoria was more co-operation among officials and more good players. And in regard to the latter, more aid for the juveniles in order to produce those needed players. However, the new rules have considerable merit and may do just what they are intended to do—bring more paying customers to the matches

The rule allowing unlimited substitution of three players looks like a good move. This will give a manager an opportunity to experiment if his club is having a bad afternoon, and may also reduce the number of injuries. Many players are seriously hurt because they remain in the game after a bad shaking up or minor injury. Now they can be taken off and sent back after a needed rest.

Using a stop watch should end much of the kicking out employed by teams to waste time when they are desperately protecting a lead, and which detracts so much from the game. Minor and major penalties for rules infractions may also prove to be a sound idea. For one thing, it should reduce the number of fouls committed outside the penalty areas when a player knows he is likely to get a five or ten-minute rest in the sin-bin, instead of having the other side get a cheap free kick Also, even the most rugged players may balk at getting a reputation for fouling by picking up too many penalties.

Not to be overlooked is the fact that players will not be so quick to question the decision of the referee if the latter is likely to hand them a five-minute penalty for doing so.

Actually, none of the changes will interfere too much with the basic principle of the game, and a fair trial may convince even the most tradition-minded fans that any sport can be improved by changes in keeping with the trend of modern sports fans In years gone by, the game was the thing. Now, it is strictly a question of dollars, and the idea is to give the paying customer what he wants—that or relegation to the rank of a minor sport.

Champ Gets Close Call Over Cuban

NEW YORK, Feb 27 (AP)—Lightweight champion Ike Williams of Trenton, N.J., barely earned a unanimous 10-round decision in a non-title bout over Kid Gavilan of Havana, Cuba, tonight at Madison Square Garden. Williams weighed 136½, Gavilan 141½.

The cool, efficient 135-pound champion almost knocked out the Cuban in the eighth when he had him on the floor with a count of eight at the bell However, the bolo-punching Gavilan, with one eye closed during the last four rounds was in there punching all the way

Referee Ruby Goldstein and Judge Jim Hagen had it for the champion by a 6-4 margin, with one round even. Judge Jack O'Sullivan called it for Williams 5-4 The Associated Press card called it even in rounds with the edge to Williams on the strength of the knockdown.

Coast, Prairie Series Mooted

VANCOUVER, Feb. 27 (CP). — A long-distance rivalry has long existed between supporters of the Pacific Coast Hockey League and the Western Canada senior circuit. It may not settle which loop provides the classiest hockey but a representative from each league may tangle here next month.

Coley Hall, manager of the P.C.H.L.'s Vancouver Canucks, said today that providing his team finished as runner-up in the Northern division he would arrange to bring the W.C.H.L. runner-up here for a comparative test of the strength of the two circuits.

DETROIT, Feb. 27 (AP)—Pitcher Hal Newhouser signed his 1948 Detroit Tigers contract this afternoon for a salary estimated around $50,000.

STYMIE'S money-winning record of $816,060 appeared to be safe at moment with two nearest rivals, Armed and Assault, no longer racing Latter, pride of famed King Ranch, has been permanently retired after winning $626,060, third on money-winning list Armed may race again but recent poor performances have caused Calumet Farm officials to give their great gelding rest Armed was consistently called upon to pack 130 pounds and weight impost may have been too much. Calumet Farm gelding has won $773,700 and is within striking distance of Stymie's mark Owners at one time hoped that horse would earn more than $1,000,000 Both Assault and Armed have proven superior to Stymie in their meetings. Armed beat Stymie twice and Assault won three of five meetings. Former has won 18 stake races while Assault has won 14 Armed's performance last year was one of greatest in turf history. Big gelding set four new track records, won $376,325 and defeated Assault in special match race to prove its superiority. Latter had best year in 1946 when it won "triple crown."

Soccer, Wrestling, Rugby On Today's Sport Card

Soccer, Rugby and wrestling fans have a full card to entertain them today but basketball enthusiasts will have a respite from the torrid action that has marked games during the past two weeks

Highlighting the soccer menu is the Pacific Coast League match between North Shore Reds and Victoria United at Royal Athletic Park at 2 30 p.m. The United, strengthened by the return of several of its injured players, will be out to regain a measure of the prestige that it lost last week in absorbing a 7-1 lacing at the hands of Vancouver City.

Fans also have a choice of the McGavin Cup fixture at Beacon Hill between Oak Bay and Esquimalt senior elevens or the Fred Oliver Memorial Cup replay between the Saanich Thistles and Oak Bay intermediate elevens at Windsor Park

Important Rugby matches are slated. Canadian Scottish tangles with Victoria College in a senior game at Macdonald Park with the second-half title having a bearing on the outcome. At Work Point, the Victoria College and Oak Bay Wanderers intermediate XV's clash in a battle that should decide the second-half crown and at Colville Road, R.C.N. and J.B.A.A. intermediates meet.

Promoter Rocky Brooks presents another mat card at the Bay Street Armoury at 8 30 p.m. featuring Paavo Ketonen of Finland and Tommy Nilan of Australia in a six ten-minute round bout. A special four ten-minute event pits Dick Poppenheim against Vic Short and the semi-windup has Chief Lone Wolf matching holds with Buck Lacombe

The Victoria High School gymnasium is not available to basketball officials tonight and cage fans will have to wait until Monday for further action.

275 To Compete In School Gala

Jim McCague, director of the Greater Victoria Schools Gala, announced last night that the largest entry in years had been received for the annual event, to be held at the Crystal Garden on March 12. A total of 275 entrants, representing 20 schools, will compete.

Victoria High School tops the High School entries with 36 competitors, followed by Oak Bay with 22. Tillicum has 26 entrants in the Elementary Schools division and Lampson 22.

Sir James Douglas School will be defending two trophies—the Canadian Legion Cup for the relay race for grades 7 and 8 boys and the V.A.S.C. Trophy for the elementary schools' aggregate.

The Sir Edward Beatty Trophy, won last year by Victoria High School, goes to the winner of the high school aggregate and the Pendray Cup, held by South Park, is for relay competition by girls of grades 7 and 8.

Louis Impresses In London Bouts

LONDON, Feb. 27 (Reuters). — London tonight caught a fleeting glimpse of the power and skill that have made and kept Joe Louis world heavyweight champion.

The Brown Bomber opened his month of exhibitions at the "Health and Holidays Exhibition" at Earls Court—for which he is getting £20,000 ($80,000).

The champion toyed with Eddie Phillips 37, former British light-heavyweight champion Louis was content with rocking him with a left hook

Then Phil Van Niekirk, 23, engaged the champion as if a title were at stake and succeeded in landing two lefts and two rights to the jaw Louis ripped in two uppercuts to the body and a left to the jaw which clearly shook his opponent.

Previous reports had involved players from Boston Bruins and New York Rangers, alleging that one member of the Boston club bet against his own team and that a Ranger player also was offered a chance to bet on the game.

The Times said it learned the Black Hawk player was "directly linked" with James Tamer, whose arrest last week as an alleged parole breaker, touched off the gambling scandal.

Coast Soccer "Streamlined"; Changes Go Into Effect Soon

Victoria soccer fans will soon see the proposed new rules introduced into league play, it was announced yesterday by Charles Faulkner, secretary of Victoria United, on his return from a meeting at Vancouver.

Referee George Barnes will go to Vancouver next week to receive instruction on the interpretation of the new rules.

The new regulations, planned to streamline the sport, provide for unlimited substitution and bench penalties for infractions.

The game will be timed by a timekeeper with a stop-watch and will eliminate wasted time Each half, based on actual playing time will be cut to 36 minutes

Bench penalties are divided into three categories—a minor of five minutes, a major of ten minutes, and a match penalty for the duration of the game.

The list of new penalties for infringements follows.

Attempt to Injure — A match penalty shall be imposed on any player who deliberately attempts to injure an opponent, official, manager, coach or trainer in any manner, and the circumstances shall be reported to the B.C. Soccer Commission for further action.

Charging—(a) A minor or major penalty may be imposed on a player who runs or jumps into or charges an opponent violently, or with intent to injure

(b) A minor or major penalty may be imposed on a player who charges a goalkeeper illegally or attempts to kick the ball while it is in possession of the goalkeeper

Ungentlemanly Conduct — A minor penalty may be imposed if a player commits ungentlemanly conduct, or persistently infringes on any laws of the game, or shows by word or action, dissent from any decision given by the referee.

Fisticuffs — A major or match penalty may be imposed, at the discretion of the referee, on any player who starts a fight, or takes part in one

Foul Language—A minor, major or match penalty may be imposed on any player who uses foul or abusive language.

Penalty Bench—Shall be a compact bench situated at or near the half-way line.

Leaving Penalty Bench—A further penalty may be imposed on a player, who on returning to the game does not enter the field at the centre line. No player may at any time leave the penalty bench while serving his penalty. Should he do so, the penalty timekeeper shall signal the referee

A substitute shall be permitted for a player who has been removed from the game on a match penalty. Such substitution, however, shall not take place until ten minutes actual playing time shall have elapsed from the time the penalty was imposed

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP).—We're down to our own private semi-finals in selecting the order of finish in the major league races this year.

The current selections are based on Winter developments and how the clubs seem to stack up on the eve of the start of Spring training The finals, just before the season opens, may show a radical change.

Here's our Winter book line:

National League — Cardinals, Dodgers, Braves, Giants, Reds, Pirates, Cubs, Phillies.

American League — Red Sox, Yankees, Indians, Tigers, Athletics, Senators, White Sox, Browns.

The Cards are currently selected on the theory they couldn't possibly have a return of the bad luck they had last year. Eddie Dyer has a sound ball club, and if Stan Musial returns to his 1946 form, which he should, it would make a tremendous difference.

The Dodgers did it last year, and again will have a young, running ball club. They don't pack the potential punch at the plate that the Cards have and we like the Card pitching staff a little better

The Braves are improving steadily and in Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn have two top-grade chuckers

GIANTS LACK HURLING

Pitching uncertainty is the weakness of the Giants. They are steeped in power If they come up with a couple of 15-game winners, and Johnny Mize and Walker Cooper have the success they had last year, Mel Ott's boys could very well take it all.

The improving Reds still seem to be a little thin, lacking first-grade reserves. Their first team line-up, with Ewell Blackwell heading a good pitching staff, compares favorably with its rivals. Johnny Hopp should help the Pirates, but that club, along with the Cubs and Phils, still is in the throes of rebuilding.

RED SOX QUESTION

Choice of the Red Sox in the American League is made with apprehension. The team is bolstered in the field, particularly by Vernon Stephens, and the new manager, Joe McCarthy, seems to have a magic touch. But the pitching outlook is uncertain.

The Yankees could repeat, of course, particularly if Joe DiMaggio keeps his health. The acquisition of Pitcher Ed Lopat was a shrewd move and may add the necessary strength to the mound staff.

The Cleveland infield looks to be as good as any in the business, and Bob Feller heads a fair pitching staff. But we don't think Indians have the all-around strength to go all the way to the top.

The Tigers seem to be the Tigers of 1947 at this writing, but Hal Newhouser should have a better year, and so should Dizzy Trout and Virgil Trucks. The Athletics will bid for the first division largely on a fine pitching staff. The Senators, White Sox and Browns might make the first division, but we're afraid not this year

Rugged Test Faces West Cage Victor

VANCOUVER, Feb 27 (CP) —British Columbia senior basketball champions who will travel East this year to defend the Dominion crown won by Vancouver Clover Leafs last year, face a stiff test.

Ebbie Bowering, Western vice-president of the Canadian Basketball Association, said today the Dominion playoffs would be played in Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens May 1, 3 5 7 and 8

The British Columbia title holders will play the Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba champs in the home town of the provincial winner. The British Columbia lads face a schedule of seven games in nine nights if they prove victorious over Alberta and Saskatchewan

The first encounter, a two-game, total-goal affair against the Alberta titleholders goes on April 23-24.

An Olympic basketball trial also is being arranged for play in Toronto, to take place a week after the Dominion finals.

The C.A.B.A. Dominion finalists and the Inter-Collegiate Association finalists will complete a round-robin series with the victor slated for the Olympic Games in August.

Clover Leafs, under the name of Meralomas, currently favored to represent British Columbia in the national chase, won the title here last year in five games against Windsor Assumption College

Bowling Winners Receive Awards

Prizes were presented to the winners of the recent city tenpin championships at a smoker in the Boilermakers' Hall last night with approximately 75 keglers in attendance.

E D "Lal" LeLacheur, one of Victoria's leading tenpin spillers several years ago made the presentations to the respective champions—Watson's Men's Wear, team event; Clyde Savage, singles, Eddie Borde, all-events and Borde and Jim Tang, doubles—as well as to the runners-up. Ten teams and 15 singles and doubles entries shared in the prize-giving Assisting LeLacheur in the presentation were W. C. Werthner and Ron Wilson, president and secretary, respectively, of the Victoria Tenpin Association.

Louis Needs Superhuman Effort To Reach Even Near-Peak Form

By GRANTLAND RICE

LOS ANGELES, CALIF., Feb. 27 —Joe Louis says his return engagement with Jersey Joe Walcott in June will be his last stop.

It has been a long time since the Bomber came out of Detroit and the Golden Gloves to knock out Jack Kracken in one round in his first professional fight. No one should expect Louis to be the same fighter he was at that time or when he won the title. When you reach the top you usually begin to soften up in a short time, and the wonder is that Louis is still champion. The main answer has been lack of competition, lack of quality in the other corner.

On a recent trip of several thousand miles, outside of "who'll win the pennants," the next common query was about Louis. "How is he looking?" "What sort of shape is he in?" How far back has he gone?" Will he be any good any more?"

The public at large was badly jolted by the Bomber's performance against Walcott. They took it for granted the Louis of 1947 was still the Louis of 1937. There is a mighty big difference between the ages of 24 and 34.

DEMPSEY THROUGH AT 32

Jack Dempsey was at his peak at the age of 24. He was over the hill at the age of 31 and through at the age of 32. Louis is now three years older then Dempsey was when Jack retired.

I recently saw a doctor who examined Dempsey after the second Tunney fight and who reported that the Mauler would never be able to get back in fighting shape again. Jack tried and discovered the doctor was correct.

It would be much better for Joe Louis if the English trip had been called off. Joe is from 10 to 15 pounds overweight now and he isn't going to lose any weight on such a visit. No matter what he did, it would be impossible to ever get back the old reflexes, the lost co-ordination, so necessary in his trade.

WALCOTT HURT

There is little use in being able to see a punch coming when you can't duck in time. Walcott nailed Louis repeatedly—often enough to knock him down twice, close an eye, batter up his mouth and start his nose exuding a crimson stream.

No tap or two could ever do that much damage. Quite a number of leather landings were needed to accomplish this result which, in the [illegible] easily have left Walcott heavyweight champion.

OPINIONS VARY

There are now what you might call two schools of thought in connection with the Joe Louis of today.

One is that he will be a very different fighter from the Louis who was punched around last December. That he will tear into Walcott this time with something of the savagery he showed against the dismantled Jack Schmeling—that he will take Walcott apart in a few rounds.

The other school, headed by Dempsey and Tunney, believes that Louis is through—that six years of soft living and almost no competition have wrecked his reflexes and his co-ordination, have destroyed his timing and his hand speed.

It is a little early yet to figure which school is right. But the Bomber's experience in an exhibition bout in Baltimore recently would indicate a serious dip from the old days. It isn't likely that his trip to England will be of any help. His exhibitions will have to be on the softer side, where Louis needs all the rough action he can get.

NEEDS COMPETITION

"Four or five rough-and-tumble fights in his camp against fellows who can fight and who are trying to knock him out," is Jack Dempsey's remedy. "Even this won't bring him far back," Dempsey says, "but it could help.

"It is like looking for your lost youth. The age of 34 is beyond middle age in boxing. It is bordering on old age. It was past middle age for me at 32. It is something hard to explain. You simply haven't got the things that really count if the other fellow moves around. If he'd only stand still you might murder him. I don't think Walcott is going to stand still."

Those six soft years from 1941 through 1947 into 1948 have taken a heavy toll. This doesn't mean that Walcott is certain to win. He is also 34, the main difference being that he has been fighting while Louis hasn't. Certainly the Conn and Mauriello affairs could hardly be labeled fights.

Sport Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

MAIMI, Feb. 27 (AP).—The fight mob was here for the Willie Pep-Humberto Sierra tussle, but the fighter who really has the managers drooling is a college boy. He's Arthur Baey, who does his punching for the University of Miami and never has been beaten in two years of college boxing. Baey, a tall, handsome 23-year-old heavyweight who reminds the fans of Max Baer without the clowning, won the national collegiate title as a freshman last year and has kayoed four of his five opponents this season. Since college bouts (never call them fights) are limited to three two-minute rounds, that's an impressive feat.

NO SECRETS, PLEASE

Playing in a charity exhibition Sunday, fat Freddie Fitzsimmons, who'll be made a "citizen" of Brooklyn Thursday in spite of the fact that he's a Braves' coach now, swung at a curve ball and dribbled a weak roller to the infield. . . . Puffing back to the bench after galloping towards first, Freddie remarked. "I've been playing ball for 35 years and they always keep throwing those things at me. The word sure gets around, doesn't it?"

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Elmer (Violent) Ray, who has been on the receiving end often enough that he ought to know a good fighter when he sees one, just shook his head while watching Sweden's Olle Tandberg work out yesterday and mumbled something about an "amateur" . . . Sun-worshipper Joe Dimaggio, who spent most of his week-end here moaning because he didn't have this good hot weather when he took a Florida vacation last month, tried his throwing arm Sunday for the first since he had some bone chips removed last November. Joe reported it felt fine, but he didn't have to throw hard.

Line-up of the J.B.A.A. intermediate Rugby XV for the match today against Navy follows: Lewis, Sylvester, Johnson, Hepburn, Bhadforth, Jones, Pynn, Sheldrake, Bourke, Harrison, Cook, Palin, Holmes, Henderson and Langdon.

Strangulation of B.C. Racing Foreseen by Turf Club Chief

VANCOUVER, Feb 27 (CP).—The "padlock of taxation" which has forced cancellation of the 1948 racing season at Brighouse and Lansdowne race tracks, Lulu Island, has now brought an order from the British Columbia Turf and Country Club that horsemen using stall space must vacate.

Observation among the turfmen is that there are possibilities of no horse racing next Summer. It is believed that unless horses are available from the Prairie Provinces in greater numbers than ever before, there will not be enough horses to conduct a four-week meet at Hastings Park.

Sam Randall of the Pacific National Exhibition's Hastings Park refuses to admit there is any real possibility of his track not operating.

"Under the present tax structure only slow strangulation of horse racing can result," declared General Manager Al Hardy of the Turf and Country Club. "The pari-mutuel tax should not be higher than 14 per cent," he added.

"We have no alternative but to close down for this Summer at least," said Hardy.

Taxes now take a total of 16 per cent—Provincial Government receives a 7 per cent tax, 7 per cent goes to the track, and the Dominion Government takes 6 per cent.

The Dominion Government has been asked to drop their "take" and the Provincial Government was asked to cut their tax 2 per cent.

In two years of operation the B.C. Turf Club claims a loss of $11,000. During the same period government taxes totaled about $900,000.

Eastern Grid Picture Chaotic As Amalgamations Rumors Fly

By H. DENT HODGSON

OTTAWA, Feb. 27 (CP) — With Winter's snows still deep, the 1948 Eastern Canadian football picture is not only unclear—it's chaotic.

The makeup, and perhaps the actual entity of the Inter-Provincial Union and the Ontario Rugby Football Union, is at stake [illegible] body—the Canadian Rugby Union—goes into a scheduled meeting at Toronto.

Whether the meeting will solve anything is a good question but certain it is that the flood of rumors surrounding the meeting are piled higher than the snow on the gridirons of the participating clubs participating in the conference.

Here are a few circulating now in the various Big Four camps.

Montreal: Alouettes would like more Americans in their quota. They're thinking of sponsoring a pro club, or of throwing over the I.R.F.U. entirely and joining the O.R.F.U. They feel the Big Four executive is bullying them and are touchy about it.

Hamilton: Rumors that Frankie Filchock, the stormy petrel of the 1947 grid who finally wound up as coach of Tigers of the Big Four, will not come back. That Tigers may amalgamate with Wildcats of the O.R.F.U. [illegible]

Toronto: As Dominion champions, the Argonauts appear to be standing on firm ground. But Balmy Beach is reported to be strongly pulling for a union with Toronto Indians in the Ontario union, which may help to throw some uncertainty into the picture.

Ottawa: As many and as varied rumors as you like. Mostly, here as in other centres, the boys are waiting to see which way the wind is going to blow.

There is a definite indication—freely admitted by both Rough Riders of the Big Four and Trojans of the Ontario union—of intention. The clubs intend to try to amalgamate and produce one strong senior team, with an intermediate club to help bring along high school material. Possibly this second team would operate in the Quebec union.

Complicating any announcement is the question of the franchise on the playing field at Lansdowne Park. Heretofore, the clubs have held a year-to-year franchise. Now they want a five-year assurance before they join forces, since Ottawa—as full of rumors as any place else—is rumored to have a backer for a professional team. The Rider-Trojan executive doesn't want to put its eggs in the collective basket until assured that some pro club won't move in.

Warden's Reports

VICTORIA DETACHMENT

Sooke River: Water too high at present. This river should be good as soon as weather conditions improve.

Koksilah River: Too high and fast at the present moment. Conditions referred to apply to area in vicinity of "Burnt Bridge" and one mile downstream from that point.

Sea fishing: No report.

ROYAL OAK DETACHMENT

Grilse fishing not very good this week, a few springs being taken off Sidney.

NANAIMO DETACHMENT

Very few steelhead being taken owing to unfavorable weather. If weather is good water levels should rapidly decrease to normal, and fishing should improve during the coming week.

QUALICUM DETACHMENT

The weather here isn't co-operating with the fishermen as four or five inches of snow fell last Monday followed by a steady rain Tuesday, resulting in the rivers in this area being practically unfishable. If the weather clears, hope for previous catches during the coming week are possible.

ALBERNI DETACHMENT

All rivers have been flowing very high lately but are on the turning point. Should the weather hold as it is now, the rivers will be in good shape for ideal fishing conditions by the end of the week. From reports received, the rivers are now holding good fish.

Somers to Coach Milwaukee Entry

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27 (CP).—Art Somers, former National Hockey League star, said today he would be coach of the Milwaukee team when minor professional hockey makes it bow in the Wisconsin city.

Somers, coach of the Winnipeg Black Hawks of the Manitoba Junior Hockey League this season, said the Milwaukee club will be a farm team of Chicago's N.H.L. entry, although it is not yet known whether it will operate in the American or the United States League. It had been hoped to introduce Milwaukee to minor pro hockey next Winter, but no start had been made yet on construction of a rink.

SUPER-CUSHION tires, fitted on new, wider Dodge "Safety-Rim" wheels are now standard equipment on all Dodge Models—another Dodge "extra" feature. Dodge thus gives you greater safety and a smoother ride at no additional cost.
These unique, new Super-Cushion tires use only 24 pounds of air pressure yet they carry 26% more air volume, which greatly reduces road vibration. They cushion the car against lateral or crosswise shocks, the softer tires taking the jars when they hit ruts, stones or rough pavement.
You are assured of greater safety as these new tires run cooler which lessens the chance of a blowout. Should a blowout occur, the new Dodge "Safety-Rim" wheels hold the tire on the rim — even at high speeds — allowing safe, straight stops.
Lower air pressure and 26% greater air volume give you the smoothest ride in Dodge history.
New Dodge "Safety Rim" wheels combine with Super Cushion tires to set a new standard of motoring safety.

THE NEW LOOK
Don't you think your mattress needs a new outlook on life? You spend one-third of your life on it and you expect it to bring you through each night refreshed and rested, but you don't give them any fresh-up treatment. The cost of having your mattress rebuilt is a mere pittance to insure your rest and comfort. You do spend a lot of time on it.

An outstanding bargain in a grocery, confectionery and general city store. A business that will stand the closest investigation and operated by the owner for the past 14 years. It carries a very large stock and premises are large and well heated. The present volume averages well over $3,000 per month with a very high markup. Excellent opportunity for expansion. Large living quarters are also available and the tenancy is excellent. The present owners are anxious to sell and are prepared to do business for only $15,000

Motor court and trailer camp, well situated, eight modern units and properly equipped trailer accommodation. These units are well furnished with expensive furniture and command a good rate of rental. The income from this court should be well over $10,000 this year and it is being offered at the low price of $32,000

Completely equipped apartment building. Five suites of three rooms each, in a building with all the necessaries. Hot water oil furnace, refrigerators, electric stoves and fireplaces. Hudwood Doors, garages, lockers, good clotheslines. Situated in very good district close to transportation. Overhead low and property in excellent condition. One suite will be vacant for the new owner and the revenue at the present time is a gross of $2,320 per annum. Present rentals are very nominal being based on prewar rates and so there is no chance of them being reduced. An excellent opportunity for someone looking for a small home with a tidy income each month yet not tied to an apartment which needs a lot of service. The asking price is $31,000, but it is essential that this property be sold immediately.

Aldermen at Ladysmith Face Budget Increases

LADYSMITH, Feb. 27.—The City Council advanced four by-laws to the stage of third reading at a regular meeting. One imposes a business tax on beer-selling establishments in the city, while another corrects a typographical error of one letter in the Waterworks Loan By-Law. The third by-law raises the garbage collection fee from $3 to $5, while the last authorizes the council to borrow $5,000 from the bank for a short term.

The picture of rising municipal costs confronts the council in every department, and fire protection fees for the outside area will be increased from $2 to $4. Those who have paid the $2 rate will be advised that they are covered only for the first six months of the year.

A request from the local cancer dressing station for permission to make a house-to-house canvass for necessary materials was granted, as was a request from J. M. Petrak, school principal, for a tag day for children's aid.

Aldermen decided to approach the B.C. Power Commission with a view to selling the Ladysmith electric light and power system. R. S. Wood, city clerk, was instructed to write D. Stephenson, general manager of the power commission, and arrange a meeting as a preliminary step.

School estimates, as submitted by Ladysmith School District were finally accepted, although with expressed reluctance. Twenty mills [illegible] pal school tax amount, leaving only 30 mills available for all other purposes. A meeting on civic estimates will be held on Wednesday, with the prospect of stringency and curtailment looming over the deliberations.

Requiem Mass will be celebrated in St. Peter's Church here Saturday morning with Monsignor Baker officiating.

May Build Hotel At Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI, Feb. 27.—Possibility of another hotel for Port Alberni is seen in a legal notice of application for a beer parlor licence and a local report that a request for an option on property has been made to the City Council. Property in question is a favored location at the corner of Fourth Avenue and Argyle Street.

Name of the company is Argyle Hotel, Ltd., and the cost of the proposed hotel is unofficially reported at $300,000.

John Rusconi and H. Cooper of Port Alberni are reported to be principals, along with E. Madelung of Vancouver.

Proposed plans call for a 60-room hotel three stories in height.

Support Increase In Pension Rates

LADYSMITH, Feb. 27.—Following the lead taken by other organizations throughout Canada the Ladysmith Board of Trade has signified its intention of endorsing the increase in pension rates requested by the Canadian Legion.

Joseph Grouhel, Sr., of Ladysmith Branch of the Canadian Legion, explained present pension rates, and asked the board's endorsation of an increase to take care of the rising cost of living. The board unanimously endorsed the proposal, and a letter will be forwarded to the Minister of Veterans' Affairs recommending that increases be granted.

The Board of Trade will ask the City Council to appoint a license inspector and seek the support of the merchants in an endeavor to curb the number of out-of-town peddlers operating in the city.

A tourist bureau will be set up in the Hub Confectionery store for the year.

Farmers' Institute Reviews Year's Work at Cobble Hill

COBBLE HILL, Feb. 27.—An account of 1947 activities was given by R. B. Moulton, president of the Shawnigan Lake and Cobble Hill Farmers' Institute, at the annual meeting held in Cobble Hill Hall. In the social line, card parties were enjoyed by a large number of residents, the highlight of the season being the annual card party and tombola, attended by visitors from many points outside the district.

Other activities included the Fall Fair, which as usual proved popular. Community auctions made a profit for the institute. The institute also sponsored the showing of films by the National Film Board, shows being attended by increasingly large numbers. A good deal of work had been done on the fair grounds, but fencing is still delayed owing to shortage of materials. It is hoped that general meetings will be held regularly on the fourth Monday of each month. Col. P. T. Oldham moved a vote of thanks to the president for his address and untiring efforts on behalf of the institute.

The financial statement showed a satisfactory balance. Efforts to have a Pound Law brought into effect in the district failed, and no further action was taken.

A resolution passed by the Cobble Hill Institute regarding the tax on improvements had been passed at the District "A" convention and forwarded to the education commission.

A report on the standing of the Sperry Phillips Memorial Bursary Fund was given.

A. T. Motherwell announced his resignation as supervisor of the calf club, which was accepted with regret. Mr. Motherwell was instrumental in forming the club several years ago, and has acted as supervisor since. He thanked E. Hamilton, J. McFarlene and B. Richardson for their help in the work of the club.

The following directors were elected: S. Wallace, J. W. Askham, R. Bewall, R. B. Moulton, T. Standring and Maj. A. A. Ransom. Miss M. Melrose was appointed secretary, and H. Turner and H. G. Grainger were re-elected auditors.

Hall trustees will be asked to take action to improve heating facilities of the building.

B. Richardson, district agriculturist, gave a short talk on work proposed by his department. He commended the institute for its activities, and thanked members for their co-operation. The warble fly campaign was touched upon briefly, it being emphasized that complete coverage was desired.

A letter was read from Mr. and Mrs. J. Beddoes, former residents of the district, thanking members and friends for a parting gift and social tendered them on their departure.

Attends Meeting

QUALICUM BEACH, Feb. 27.—Rev. H. P. Davidson is attending a meeting of the United Church Board of Social Service and Evangelism. He also intends to visit his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon K. Davidson, Ottawa. Rev. W. Buckingham will conduct services at Qualicum Beach in the absence of Mr. Davidson.

Plan to Extend Village Recreational Facilities

CAMPBELL RIVER, Feb. 27.—Representatives of three local organizations addressed Campbell River Parent-Teacher Association in the high school, and outlined some of the plans they had in mind to improve recreational facilities for the youth of Campbell River.

First speaker was Roy Cameron of the General Construction Company, who explained some of the facilities offered by the new gymnasium at Elk Falls. Activities included boxing, wrestling, tumbling, judo and general gymnastics. He said that the practices were intended not necessarily to produce a community of boxers and wrestlers, but rather to assist in the physical development of the youth of the community. However, if any promising athletes were discovered, they would be given every opportunity to develop their talents. Mr. Cameron noted that plans were being considered to have a junior softball team this year, and also to install an outdoor rifle range, where the potential nimrods of the community could learn the proper use and care of firearms.

Representing the local Kinsmen Club, Ross McLeod spoke on the proposed swimming pool for Campbell River, which is this year's project for the organization. He said that it would be a standard-sized tank, which could be used in competitions, and would be constructed so that it could be heated at a future date. When completed, a qualified supervisor would be employed at the pool.

J. H. Burgess, on behalf of Rotary Club, reviewed activities of the Boy Scout movement at Campbell River, which Rotarians sponsor, and which is going rapidly ahead under the capable leadership of George Church. He also outlined activities of the Girl Guides and Brownie Pack, which are sponsored by the Rotary Anns.

All three speakers commented on the urgent necessity for a recreational centre at Campbell River, and expressed the wish that efforts of the Memorial Centre Association would be brought to a successful conclusion at an early date.

Seventy members attended the meeting, at which Mrs. R. L. Haig-Brown presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. N. N. McPhedran. Mrs. Haig-Brown reported favorable progress being made with regard to the recently-opened lunch counter at the school. Mrs. E. P. Painter, Mrs. R. Wilken, Mrs. A. Thomson and Mrs. B. Hopton volunteered to assist in the kitchen during March.

Entertainment portion of the program was presented by Grades IV and V pupils of Miss Ann Butler. They included "Home on the Range" sung by Glen Hilchey, who accompanied himself on the guitar; a short comedy entitled "Making a Cake," in which Kenneth Hunter, Lorne Marshall and Donald Cochrane took part, and as a finale, "Cradle Song," by several pupils of the class. Ross Spiers acted as master of ceremonies.

Cpl. H. L. Norman of the Provincial Police gave an address on safety on the roads for children, and enumerated some of the ways in which parents could assist children to protect themselves from traffic accidents. He suggested that parents urge children to always face oncoming traffic when walking along the roads, and to carry a flashlight or wear light-colored garments when walking after dark. He deplored the practice of children riding the handlebars of bicycles, and said it was downright dangerous, as well as being against the law. He urged residents to co-operate with the police in keeping down traffic accidents by reporting to them any flagrant violations of speed laws which they might witness.

Mrs. McPhedran was nominated a delegate to attend the B.C. convention of the Parent-Teacher Federation, to be held at Vancouver from March 31 to April 2. Discussion was held regarding the recent announcement from Ottawa that expenses incurred by teachers attending Summer school were not considered as proper deductions from their income tax, and the meeting agreed that a resolution protesting the move be drafted and taken by the delegate to be presented at the convention.

Plans are under way to hold a dance in April, and a committee headed by Hugh Ferguson, school principal, was appointed to meet at the school on Tuesday to make arrangements. The committee includes Mrs. Painter, Mrs. R. Hulme, Miss M. Orman, Mrs. A. R. MacLennan, Mrs. Al. King, H. Vogt and J. Perkins.

Roy Cameron announced that plans were being made to present a gymnastic display at the General Construction camp some time in May, and the meeting accepted Mr. Cameron's offer that the proceeds of the affair be donated to the school lunch counter fund.

Miss L. Dewell's room won the attendance prize. At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments provided by the pupils of J. Phillips' room were served by the social convener, Mrs King, assisted by Mrs S. Buxton, Mrs. C. Wagner, Mrs. S. Cyr and Mrs. Painter.

To Improve Area

PARKSVILLE, Feb. 27.—R. W. Primmer, president of Parksville and District Board of Trade, announced that the board intended to clean up Parksville Bay and co-operate with Parksville Kinsmen Club in improving the approach to the village. A British Columbia products show will also be brought to the district when a hall is available.

Naval Warfare Talk

LANGFORD, Feb. 27. — Members of Prince Edward Branch No. 91, Canadian Legion, and the Women's Auxiliary will meet in the clubrooms on Dunford Road at 8 p.m. Tuesday to hear an address on naval warfare.

Trial Remanded Pending Analysis

Trial in city police court yesterday of Richard Laming was remanded until Wednesday to permit T. W. C. Davis, provincial analyst, to continue analysis of metal particles found adhering to a screwdriver.

Mr. Davis testified that particles of paint taken from the screwdriver tip were similar to paint on a parking meter which was also entered as an exhibit in the case.

Foreign Exchange

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP).—The Canadian dollar was down 3-16 of a cent in closing foreign exchange dealings at a discount of 11 9-16 per cent. The pound sterling was unchanged at $4.03 1-4.

Coast Hospital $4,110 in Debt

PORT ALBERNI, Feb. 27.—Although a loss of $4,110 was shown for the year, reports at the annual meeting of the West Coast Hospital Society indicated the position of the hospital was better than it had been for several years.

The financial statement showed a surplus of $30,774, but it does not represent actual cash. It appears because of a special grant from the Provincial Government and donations through the Community Chest which wiped out last year's outstanding deficit of $32,000.

Harvey E. Taylor, secretary-treasurer, noted the Provincial Government had made a special grant in January of 30 cents per patient per day to assist all hospitals. The local share was $3,463, which came within $647 of covering the loss on operations.

The hospital operated at 62 per cent of its capacity during the year. The number of patients admitted showed an increase of 166, and patient days increased 531. Average length of time each patient remained was reduced to 6.29 days.

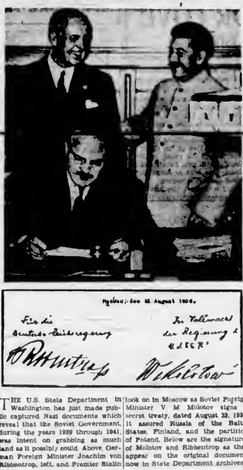
Loran K. Jordan, president, laid stress on the great value derived in the services of a radiologist who now calls at the hospital weekly to assure correct interpretation of X-ray plates.

Another hospital feature, which he believed unique in British Columbia was the taking of chest X-ray plates of all patients as a routine matter. Many cases of unsuspected tuberculosis might be discovered, Mr. Jordan stated.

It was noted that the Workmen's Compensation Board would pay an inclusive rate of $6.70 per day. Experience would show whether the amount was sufficient, the secretary-treasurer pointed out.

Cost per patient day in 1947 was $6.02, but with increased wages and higher costs for all types of supplies the cost in 1948 will likely be well over $7 per day.

Reveal Secret Nazi-Russian Pact



Moskau, den 23. August 1939.
Für die Deutsche Reichsregierung
In Vollmacht der Regierung d. UdSSR

THE U.S. State Department in Washington has just made public captured Nazi documents which reveal that the Soviet Government, during the years 1939 through 1941, was intent on grabbing as much land as it possibly could. Above, German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, left, and Premier Stalin look on in Moscow as Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov signs a secret treaty, dated August 23, 1939. It assured Russia of the Baltic States, Finland, and the partition of Poland. Below are the signatures of Molotov and Ribbentrop as they appear on the original document, now in State Department archives.

Distance Bars Rupert Cagers

PRINCE RUPERT, Feb. 27 (CP).—A basketball team here is of senior "B" calibre, but apparently can't advance into the provincial play-offs.

Art Murray, manager of the team, has spoken by telephone to Harry Chapman, secretary of the British Columbia Amateur Basketball Association, in Vancouver, but so far has been unable to gain entry to the play-offs.

Murray has been advised that the entry is frowned upon because of the "isolated position" of this city, about 470 miles north of Vancouver.

Chapman claims, however, he is prepared for the "isolated position" of the team, but so far, despite representations, no arrangements have been made for the play-off.

Pennock, Traynor Latest Names In Hall of Fame

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (AP). — The late Herb Pennock and Harold (Pie) Traynor were voted into baseball's hall of fame today by the United States Baseball Writers' Association. Their names will be enrolled in the Cooperstown (N.Y.) shrine alongside 46 others who were so honored in previous years.

Pennock, the great left-handed pitcher who died January 30 en route to a National League meeting in New York, led the candidates with 94 votes. Traynor, Pittsburgh third baseman for 17 years, polled 93 votes. According to the rules, 75 per cent of the votes cast—or 91 votes—were required for election. More than 300 writers were eligible to vote. A total of 121 votes were cast.

Pennock was one of the best left-handed pitchers of all time. Formerly with the Yankees, Philadelphia A's and Boston Red Sox, he was rounding out a fifth year as general manager of the Phillies when he died.

Over a 22-year span he won 246 big league games, including five without a defeat in world series competition.

Another Fatality Charged to Ring

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 27 (AP).—Ledoy Decatur, 20-year-old Negro lightweight boxer, died in the ring at the American Legion Stadium tonight, in the fourth round of his first professional bout.

Decatur, who had participated in approximately 40 amateur bouts, crashed to the canvas after his opponent, Fred Herrera, 20, had landed a left to the body and a right to the jaw midway in the final round of a preliminary bout.

His manager, Joe Rhodes, veteran trainer of amateur fighters, said Decatur was always in the best of condition and was very conscientious about his training.

Manitobans Rush To Make Certain Of Seeing Champ

BRANDON, Man., Feb. 27 (CP).—In case there's anybody who doubts Barbara Ann Scott's gate appeal:

Tickets to an ice carnival still more than a month away, and featuring the world and Olympic figure skating champion, were snapped up inside of two days. Officials said approximately 9,000 persons would see the champ at the two-night carnival, April 1-2.

They also said that more than $8,000 had been returned to out-of-town applicants who were too late.

Release Manager In Fight Inquest

CHICAGO, Feb. 27 (AP).—Illinois Boxing Commission officials today declined to sign any perjury complaint against Fight Manager Mike Spinelli at an inquest into the ring death of Sam Baroudi.

After the inquest, Assistant State Attorney Daniel Ryan had Spinelli detained at a police station for a short time.

Ryan requested the commission to sign perjury complaints because the age of the 20-year-old Baroudi was given incorrectly in a statement by Spinelli to the commission prior to the fatal bout a week ago.

When no complaint was signed, Ryan ordered Spinelli released and Coroner A. L. Brodie announced: "Unless something more develops, Spinelli will be of no further service to this office, and will not be required to attend the next session of the inquest."

Baroudi, Akron, O., negro light-heavyweight, died last Saturday, more than six hours after he was knocked out in the tenth round by Ezzard Charles.

Junior Golf Button Match Set on Sunday

Making their first challenge for the city junior golf buttons, Tommy Harris and Johnny Merriman of the Gorge Vale Club will be out to try and break the winning streak of the present holders, Danny McLean and Stan Nixon of the Uplands Club, when they meet at the Uplands Club on Sunday at 12 noon. McLean and Nixon have held the buttons since their presentation and have turned back six challenges.

Brakeman Safe After Mishap

RED DEER, Alta., Feb. 27 (CP).—Brakeman Douglas Low of Red Deer escaped injury today by leaping from the caboose of a Canadian Pacific Railway freight train which jumped the track in the local yards today.

The accident occurred in front of the station. The station's southwest corner and the turret and undercarriage of the caboose were extensively damaged.

Several express office employees were warned of the danger by one who saw the caboose beginning its wild plunge toward them. Brakeman Lowe, riding the platform of the caboose, jumped to the ground.

Traffic was re-routed around the wreck. Preliminary investigation revealed it had been caused by an accumulation of snow and ice.

Bell Telephone Held Monopoly

OTTAWA, Feb. 27 (CP).—Passage of a private bill to authorize the Bell Telephone Company to increase its capitalization from $150,000,000 to $500,000,000, was blocked in the Commons tonight by John M. MacNicol (PC-Toronto Davenport), who termed the corporation a "gigantic monopoly."

Speaking on second reading of the bill, which already has passed the Senate, Mr. MacNicol said the company, with "no opposition whatever and full control to do what it likes," should provide better service than it now gives its customers. Its ramifications provided a "good argument" for public ownership.

P. S. Zaplitny (CCF-Dauphin) joined the debate and said the House should be careful about granting such authorization to a company which was a monopoly in at least two provinces—Ontario and Quebec.

The two speakers prevented action being taken on the bill before the hour set aside for consideration of private measures expired. It will come up for study again later in the session.

Plan to Ship Oleomargarine

OTTAWA, Feb. 27 (CP).—John Dehne, agent for a Netherlands company, today said Holland is prepared to ship 300,000 pounds of oleomargarine to Canada, if allowed. Without duty, the margarine would retail at 38 cents a pound.

19-Year Old Held In Robbery Case

VANCOUVER, Feb. 27 (CP).—Police have taken into custody a 19-year-old suspect in connection with Thursday's $6,000 robbery of a girl messenger.

Miss Audrey Blaikie, 21, cashier for the Vancouver Supply Co., was robbed when two men snatched a briefcase from her as she was en route to a bank.

Details of the suspect's arrest were not disclosed by police.

Canucks Trounced

VANCOUVER, Feb. 27 (CP).—The lowly Portland Eagles tonight defeated Vancouver Canucks 9-3 in a Pacific Coast Hockey League fixture. The setback did not affect Canucks' third berth in the Northern Division.

Larry Reardon with three goals and Phil Dalgleish with two led the Portland attack. Mel Nelson flashed two counters to lead Vancouver scoring.

LUCKY FOR LOVE

By JANE DIXON

COPYRIGHT 1940, BY JANE DIXON

The hope was drowned in Clara's clamor when Marilyn tried to rouse her, that her head was splitting, that she must have "a pitcher of ice and a bromide quick," that she was going to stay in bed for a week, that [illegible] that she wished people would clear out and let her sleep. Then she pulled the covers over her head and refused to listen further.

Down in the lobby, Marilyn rang Bruce Gordon's apartment. The clipped voice of a man servant answered. The young gentleman who had been injured was doing nicely. The doctor had been in very early. Mr. Gordon had gone out immediately afterward for a gallop in the park. He had left word when Miss Marsh called she was to be informed [illegible] nicely. The doctor found no concussion, but in view of the shock suffered, though the young gentleman should remain quiet for another day, possibly two, that he should not be moved or receive visitors.

Marilyn thought, "No matter how muddled our lives are, we can always find reason for thanksgiving."

The mechanical precision of the office, the quiet undertow of it's activity was manna to her troubled heart, her chafed nerves, her careening thoughts. Determinedly she forced herself into the swing of work, felt herself carried along by the pressure of it.

Several times during the morning Marilyn felt the sharp eyes of Miss Edna Cook, head of the department, boring in on her from the observation desk at the end of the room. She must look ghastly under the office lights. At noon she'd freshen up her makeup, bear down on the lipstick a bit, and add a touch of color to her cheeks. By twelve o'clock she had written three pieces of copy she thought especially good and sent it on its routine.

She gulped tomato juice and nibbled a cracker at a drugstore lunch counter. Then she walked swiftly, trying to whip life into her numbed body. She phoned her room at the hotel. No answer. Clara was probably asleep or in a pet and would not answer. She was careful about her makeup. Too much would be more telltale than none at all. When she returned to the office at the close of the lunch hour the three pieces of copy that had been ground out so laboriously were on her desk. It bore the initials "E.C.," accompanied by a criticism which would curl the hair of a less sensitive worker than Marilyn.

"She knows I've been burning the candle at both ends and she's riding me," Marilyn told herself. "She's right. I must pull myself up. I must show her I can take criticism and profit by it." Marilyn settled down to the task of hewing, polishing, injecting new color, new vigor into the copy that had seemed so special only a little while ago. She would shut out that other world which was buffeting her about. She would.

At three o'clock an office boy came to her desk with a memo. She held it in her lap to steady her hands as she read:

"Please come to my office. The boy who delivers this note will show you the way.—Bruce Gordon."

Marilyn folded the note and tucked it into the pocket of her blouse. This was the end, of course. Miss Cook had told Bruce — told Mr. Gordon—how utterly she was failing. Miss Cook had told how dull, how vapid she was, how empty. He would understand after last night, after the scene in the Blue Parrot, and Clara.

CHAPTER XX

"Gee, Marilyn, what's happened?" Kathleen Garvan leaned over from her desk to inquire. "You look like a ghost. Can I get you a glass of water?"

Marilyn said, so low that Kathleen had to strain to catch the words, "Thanks. I'm all right. I'm fine. I guess it was the memo—it sort of surprised me. It's from Mr. Gordon, Bruce Gordon. I'm to see him in his office."

"From the boss? Personal from B.G. himself?" Kathleen's eyes were so wide they resembled twin blue pools. "Gee, that really is something!"

Marilyn followed the boy, conscious only of the heaviness of her feet and the dryness of her lips. He led her through a series of two outer offices in which typewriters clicked busily, and motioned her through a door. Across one corner of a room flooded with sunlight was a great mahogany desk. It was the largest, the handsomest desk Marilyn had ever seen, the deep red-brown of its surface burnished to shining satin, the carved figures across its front standing out in bold relief like living things marching. Behind the desk, the height of him commanding its expanse, sat Bruce Gordon.

"Come in, Miss Marsh," he called cordially and turned to a slim dark girl who obviously had been taking dictation. "That will be all for the present, Miss Thompson." The girl left immediately, closing the door after her.

what is done with my insurance premium

Your insurance premium is divided three ways. The largest part goes into your own savings fund.* A small part is used to pay its proportionate share of the Company's operating expenses. Another small part is used to help make up the balance for those who die before their savings funds have been built up to the full face value of their policies.

If you yourself die before your savings fund is sufficient to pay the full face value of your policy — then the other policy-holders will likewise contribute the balance needed. If the premium you pay is higher than is necessary, the excess is returned to you by way of dividends.

This is the basic policy of life insurance by which men co-operate mutually to protect their families against the hazards of life.

If you drop out of this co-operative venture then your savings fund is returned to you.

*The exception is "term" insurance where no savings fund is built up.

Delegation En Route to Ottawa Hopes to Save Salmon Canning

With British Columbia's salmon canning industry facing extinction due to export of fish to the United States, a delegation of canners, fishermen and representatives of co-operatives is on its way to Ottawa to place its problems before Fisheries Minister J. A. MacKinnon at meetings to open there Tuesday.

It is accompanied by George J. Alexander, British Columbia deputy fisheries minister, whose department has been making urgent representations to Dominion Government for action to save the industry here.

Effect of lifting of embargoes on export of canning fish to the United States last Autumn was to shut off supply of British Columbia's canneries, since fish commanded higher prices in the United States.

Canneries here were forced to close down immediately after the embargo was lifted, and Mr. Alexander said yesterday impact of Ottawa's action would be felt to an even greater extent this year.

It is reported that some large British Columbia canning companies are considering moving their operations across the border.

Wismer Sees No Problem In Impounding

Regulations calling for impounding of automobiles involved in accidents in cases where drivers have no insurance protection, as provided in the new Provincial public safety and responsibility law will not be enforced in Nelson.

The City Council has decided the cost of impounding cars would be too great and decided yesterday to advise the Government of its stand. The new traffic safety measure comes into effect March 1.

The decision caused no excitement here in Government circles.

Attorney-General Gordon Wismer said the impounding of vehicles would not prove a problem. In Manitoba and several states where almost identical laws prevail, but a few cars were seized each year.

In other official quarters, however, it was stated that impounding would be at the owner's expense and that municipalities were compelled to enforce the regulations.

Any expense incurred by the Government due to refusal of municipalities to impound cars, could be countered by deductions from the annual Motor Vehicle License grants made, it was stated.

Second Call Made For Road Tenders

A second call for tenders for construction of a road link between Squamish and Britannia Beach was made by Provincial Public Works Department yesterday. Bids put in by contractors earlier were rejected as too high.

The contract calls for extensive heavy rock work, and departmental estimates of construction of about two miles of road are in the neighborhood of $150,000.

Bids on the second call will close here at noon, March 12.

Damage Survey Started Below Ship's Waterline

—Marine News—

A damage survey started yesterday afternoon below the waterline of the American freighter, Nicholas D. Labadie, which reached Esquimalt under her own power after being freed from Helen Point, Mayne Island, at 6.40 yesterday morning.

[illegible] grain from Vancouver destined for Holland when she grounded at the southern entrance to Active Pass, was removed from her rocky perch through the efforts of several tugs. Those attending the ship were Salvage King, of Pacific Salvage Co. Ltd., Island Navigator, of Island Tug & Barge Ltd. and three Vancouver-based towboats.

The ship went aground at approximately 10.30 Thursday morning. Damage is believed to be most extensive about her bow.

Unsuccessful attempts to free the freighter were made Thursday night by the Salvage King and the Canadian National No. 2. Island Navigator left her Inner Harbor dock shortly after midnight Thursday and rushed to the scene.

Reports from men of the damaged freighter indicate no one was injured.

As she is an American ship, it is likely necessary repairs will be done at a U.S. shipyard.

Sampep "Jinxed" Vessel

The freighter Sampep was an unlucky ship; she was jinxed in the thoughts of many men who sailed in her. It was this freighter that burned practically beyond repair at a dockside fire at Port Alberni last August.

She was brought to Victoria, where she remained for some time. Then she was towed to a "boneyard," off Astoria, Ore. But that was not her last voyage, as many had thought. She was an American freighter on lease to Britain, and as such had to be returned to the United States Maritime Commission in a seaworthy condition. Recently she was towed to Vancouver, and repairs are now under way. When finished, it is probable she will return to the U.S., there to waste away.

Among her crew members who believe the ship was ill-fated from the start is James Stones, who is now in the Royal Jubilee Hospital. He has been there since November 8 when he fell from the ship's gangplank a distance of more than 12 feet, landing on his back. As a result, he is now completely paralysed from the hips down.

Despite his severe handicap, however, he has remained cheerful. Within two weeks he will be leaving Victoria for his home in Middlesbrough, Yorkshire, where he will see his wife and four children. He will make the return home by air, and with him all the way will be a male orderly.

In an interview yesterday, Mr. Stones said he "more than appreciated the many kindnesses shown him at the hospital.

"I will always remember the fine people of Victoria," he said.

Mr. Stones, who was on board the Sampep as a donkeyman, has been at sea for many years.

In England he will spend some time at a large hospital in Manchester, where it is hoped his injury will be cured. And just as soon as he gets his "sea legs" back in shape, he is going to sign up on another ship.

Tug Returns

The navy tug Glendon has returned to her Esquimalt base after conducting a fruitless search for a derelict fishing vessel, reported by the Department of Transport on Thursday to be awash and drifting off Race Rocks.

The fish boat, approximately 35 feet in length, is believed to be an old abandoned hulk from nearby Becher Bay. It is possible a high tide refloated the wreck and carried it into the shipping channel.

POLICE DISMISSED

TOKIO, Feb. 27 (Reuters).—Four-hundred Japanese policemen have been dismissed at Osaka since January 1 for co-operating with black marketeers and gangsters. Osaka, prewar industrial centre of Japan, has been a centre of black market scandals in the last few months.

Will Marry In Australia

Three adventurous Canadian girls are on board the luxurious converted cargo-passenger liner S.S. Levuka, which left Vancouver on Thursday for Melbourne, Australia. The ship was completely modernized at Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd. for W. R. Carpenter (of Canada) Ltd.

All three are engaged to Royal Australian Air Force men whom they met in Canada during the war.

The ship is carrying a capacity passenger load of 51 persons on her maiden voyage, also a large lumber cargo.

In command of Levuka is Capt. D. J. Coutts.

Among passengers aboard is Dr. Karel Sakh, of the Czechoslovakian legation at Ottawa. With his wife and son, he is on his way to the Czechoslovakian consulate-general's office at Sydney.

WILL VISIT VICTORIA

OTTAWA, Feb. 27 (CP).—R. E. G. Davis, director of the Canadian Welfare Council, left tonight on a month-long tour of Western Canada, council officials announced. He plans to visit Community Chest Councils, private social agencies, municipal and provincial welfare departments, during his tour which opens February 29 in Winnipeg.

Mr. Davis will visit Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary, Victoria and Vancouver.

Plan Contest For Playlots

A backyard playlot contest will be sponsored this Spring to stimulate interest in safe playing areas, the Recreation Council of Greater Victoria decided at a meeting at Welfare House on Tuesday, devoted mainly to discussion of playgrounds and lots in the city and district.

A delegation was appointed to meet the joint lands and parks committees of the City Council on the issue of setting aside of certain areas for playgrounds.

Spencer's Remnants are ready to "adopt" the Ellice Street playlot, which has been managed under joint sponsorship of the Recreation Council and North Ward P.-T.A., it was reported.

Hudson's Bay Co. has donated a record player for the Gordon Head Play School, operated by the council The meeting agreed to sponsor the closing Pro-Rec display. Annual meeting will be held at City Hall on April 22.

Sunset Cottage Plan Postponed

Plans of the Victoria Lions Club to build a number of "Sunset Cottages" for senior citizens of the city have been postponed for an indefinite time due to present high costs of construction, it was learned yesterday.

"We do not want to shelve this project permanently," said John Priestley, chairman of the committee in charge of the program, "but that it be left until a more propitious time."

It is also suggested that the present committee of 12, including the chairman, be left intact in order that plans might be carried out in the future providing conditions are more suitable.

Members of the committee are L. E. Evenden, E. A. Estlin, P. W. Gilson, J. H. Morrison, George Biddle, C. R. Savage, E. S. Cross, K. G. Hart, E. G. Bissenden, G. A. Newman and W. A. Trenholme.
